REPORT ON GRAIN CROP

Critical Stage is Approaching and Moisture is Generally Needed

Has Been Hot

Some Damage Done But Will Not Be Extensive If Moisture Comes Soon

WINNIPEG, June 21—The wheat crop in western Canada is approaching the critical stage, according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture, Canadian National Railways. Excepting the more northerly districts crops have suffered from the intense heat of the past week and also from grass-hoppers in scattered sections but good rains over large areas will avoid more serious effects.

In Manitoba the intense heat had made heavy demands on the moisture reserves and in several districts, the grasshoppers have become a real menace.

The Dauphin and Swan River areas report weather was very trying the past week-end but was followed by rains and somewhat cooler temperatures. Wheat has a stand of eight to 12 inches and the hay crop is making excellent progress.

In Saskatchewan

Along the Lampman, Arcola, Strawberry, Riverhurst, Central Butte and Qu'Appelle subdivisions in Saskatchewan, crops are showing fairly well. Grasshoppers are causing damage in some places and good rains are hoped for during the next few days. Pastures are in good shape and livestock keeping in good condition.

In Central Saskatchewan some crops are suffering from lack of moisture and on light lands crops are burning brown from the heat. Good rains are very necessary to prevent further deterioration.

At all points in the Prince Albert district crop conditions remain very good. The extreme heat of the past week has aided up lands considerably but crops are not suffering although good rains would be beneficial. No damage from any source is reported and prospects are excellent.

Peace River

The Peace River territory reports weather warm and grain is in good condition.

Breezy Story of British Navy Is On Screen Here

In the British picture "The Flag Lieutenant," which is being featured on the screen of the Digital Theatre here at the end of this week, comes the talkie version of a dramatic classic which, as a play, enjoyed extraordinary popularity and later, as a silent picture, was also most successful. The story one of British naval men and the deeds they do, is one to stir the blood and fire the imagination and the picture is real entertainment replete with incident and pulsating with action. There is nothing of the triangle love romance or drama about the breezy yarn.

The cast is a splendid one, featuring as it does the pick of British talking picture talent. Henry Edwards plays the part of Lieut. Lancelot, a happy-go-lucky flag lieutenant, who allows the decoration he has won for bravery to be conferred upon his more fortunate friend, Major Trelliger. Peter Gawthorne, rather than rob him of his greatest opportunity of his naval career, dons beagle, tailed actress, has the feminine starring part as Hermione.

Mrs. J. W. Kilpatrick and daughter, Rose Marie, are leaving on tonight's train for Lake Kathlyn where they will spend the next couple of months.
