A BRIGHT NEW COAT

This is the time of year when the house needs a bright new coat of paint. For two or three years it may have been neglected but, now that the depression is being sloughed off, the time has come to brighten up property.

We have been depressed and our buildings have reflected the state of our minds. They have become dull and damp, in some cases, possibly, dirty and on the verge of decay. Now is the time to make the change.

During the past few months our minds have changed. We have taken on a new outlook on life. We see a glorious sunrise just over the hill. Spring is here but such a spring as we have not known for several years. Think of the sun-shine we had at Easter. That was an omen of the springing up once more of hope in all our hearts. Since then we have increased our faith in the future. Day by day we see signs of revival, slight ones at first, but they will increase.

Very soon we shall look upon the person with an un-painted building as dead—a victim of the depression. We shall look back upon him as one who could not stand up under the strain of bad times. The person who is imbued with the joy of the change will show it in all his actions. He will devote more time to his garden, making it more beautiful even than in the past. He will mend his fences, repair his buildings and make them beautiful with color. The drab of the depression must go. The optimists will lead the way. Now, let us see who are optimists.

BUY SOMETHING

What applies to property will also apply to personality. Merchants have been getting in spring goods this year. They have shown their faith in Prince Rupert and her people. There are new things with new styles, expressing new ideas of beauty and fitness. They are replacing the winter clothes that have seen good service for several years. In the past few years it has been looked upon as a mark of virtue to do without new clothes. Today we are beginning to look upon the poorly-dressed man as one who is hindering the return to normal conditions.

The aim this summer will be to dress well, look prosperous and make the property reflect that condition. In that way we shall give ourselves and our city a standing which will enable it to do its part in the revival which is now in process.

Man in the Moon

Jake says he thinks he'll take up law. His wife has been laying it down for years.

A little group of Prince Rupert people are reported to be praying for an earthquake to shake the people out of their complaisance.

You may have heard about the little boy who, when asked if he would like to see the new brother the stork had brought, replied that he would prefer to see the stork.

During the past winter Prince Rupert was said to be about as quiet as a wedding without a bridegroom.

The man was worrying. "Tell me about it," said his pal. "Get it off your chest."

"I wish I could," groaned the other. "I've got 'Marguerite' tattooed there, and the girl I'm engaged to marry is named 'Helen.'"

"I suppose you know the Joneses are moving?"

"Why, they've only been here six months. People were just getting to know them."

"Yes. That's why."

"Unwanted Caller—Can I see the manager, please?

"Office Boy—He's out."

"U. C.—Can I see the under-manager, please?"

"O. B.—He's out."

"U. C.—Very well, I'll just wait by the fire."

"O. B.—It's out, too."

GIANTS ON TOP AGAIN

Pittsburg Pirates Displaced From Leadership of National League Yanks Still Going Strong

NEW YORK, April 28 (Canadian Press)—New York Giants, as a result of their defeat of the Phillies at the Polo Grounds, yesterday regained possession of first place in the National League standing from the Pittsburg Pirates who was losing a hard-fought battle at home to the Chicago Cubs. The three-way tie for third place was broken up with the Brooklyn Dodgers now in exclusive possession of that notch by virtue of a one run shut-out over the Boston Braves who took exclusive possession of the cellar below the Chicago Cubs. The St. Louis Cardinals, winning a close decision over the Cincinnati Reds at St. Louis, advanced from sixth place into a tie with the Phillies for fourth place, the Reos dropping into sixth place.

In the American League, the New York Yankees took the Philadelphia Athletics into camp at Shibe Park while the Chicago White Sox, playing at home, renewed their grasp on second place by easily defeating the Detroit Tigers who dropped from fourth into fifth place. The Washington Senators, who took a one-run margin victory from the Boston Red Sox at Boston, now being tied for third place with the Cleveland Indians who suffered defeat at home also by a one-run margin at the hands of the lowly St. Louis Browns.

Yesterday's Big League scores:

PLAY IS POPULAR

plies of merriment.

Alan Cross is good in one of the romantic parts and nicely rounds off the cast.

A young people's orchestra consisting of Bob Young, Bill Murray, Bill Bacon and Wizner Bryant provided popular music during the evening.

Delicious refreshments were served before the gathering broke up. Mrs. Harry Menzies was convenor of the committee in charge, other members of which were Mrs. D. A. Brown. Mrs. George Ciccone and Mrs. W. P. Armour. Mrs. F. M. Crossby was in charge of the card tables and Mrs. E. J. Clapp presided at the door.

It is the first dramatic attempt of the Anglican Young People's Association and, no doubt, the organization is well satisfied with the appreciative response with which it met and should be encouraged to essay future successful efforts along the same line.

Miss Evie Rivett and Bob Irvine presided at the door. Miss Margaret Gilchrist and Miss Joan Cross acted as ushers.

Winners in Fox Trot Contest at Capitol Theatre

Mrs. Frank Fitch and Mrs. W. Basley, dressed in hard times costumes, were winners of first prize in the finals of the fox trot contest at the Capitol Theatre last night. Ham Antonelli, representing Greenwich Marx, and his sister, Mrs. Tom Bradley, won second prize.

Tom Barton, dressed in a sheet as Mahatma Gandhi and having his goat with him, made quite a hit, his partner being Miss Myrtle Rose.

Judges of appearance were D. C. Schubert and Mrs. D. C. Stuart.

MAY PLAY BASEBALL

The executive of the Prince Rupert Baseball Association, at a meeting last night with Ald. G. W. Rudderham, the president, in the chair, decided to call the annual meeting of the association for Thursday of next week.

The association is endeavoring to organize a three-team senior league this year, replacing such players as have left the city since last year with talent from intermediate ranks. The expectation is that teams will again be sponsored by the Sons of Canada, Elks and, possibly, the Old Empress Hotel.
