THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

QUESTIONS FOR THE GIRL

Better Asked Before Marriage Than Afterwards

A wise soul has said that marriage is a matter of being able to laugh at one another's jokes. But there are some more fundamental things.

If he is a rich man and it is his only attribute, the question is do riches bring happiness?

Is he a poor man—so poor that after the first glamour of love is spent there is nothing left to spend even for the creature comforts that are necessary?

Is he a real companion, or does he need many other companions to fill in the following of his natural bent?

Is he a man who can prove his interest by real support, or will she forever have to assist in the actual money-making?

Is he interested in the same pleasures or is there a material difference as to what constitutes pleasure?

This is certainly a new idea as opposed to the so-called old-fashioned women. She it is who accepts marriage as a sacrifice, a matter of servitude—calling it love—who thinks of nothing but the home and the baking and the cooking.

If a girl would look before she leaps in this thoughtful age of living, perhaps the words "until death do us part" would more often actually come to pass; not in the tolerant sense but in the true sense.

Yes, says, "Sophie Leob" there are many, many happy marriages. But these are not a result of chance, but rather of choice.

FASHION FROTH

Bubbles from the Cataracts of Frocks and Frills

Aigrettes—but of the manufactured type—are as popular as trimming.

There is a tendency to make up simple dresses without a lining.

Printed lace effects over brilliant colored grounds are in high favor.

One of the most useful hats for traveling or country wear is of suede.

Fichus and sashes and scarfs are the present hallmarks of the lingerie frock.

Fine serges are seen everywhere, both in fine twill and herringbone effects.

Voiles are in great demand and Water and Musk Melons

and Fresh Fruits of all kinds are what you should eat this hot weather to keep healthy. We have just received a fresh consignment of CORN ON THE COB First of the Season are seen in plain and printed or fancy effects.

Smocking is one of the most artistic and effective decorations for children's frocks.

White hosiery and shoes can only be worn with the all-white or floral and white fabrics.

The latest novelty in veils is a rust shade veil, which is exactly the color of rusted iron.

Bordered cottons made up crosswise do not set as well as when made up of lengthwise.

There are lovely bags of white velvet decorated with narrow stripes done in black beads.

Patent leather belts in black, blue, red or white are to be stylish finish for linen frocks.

RESTAURANT ETIQUETTE

Pointers for the Down Town Girl by a Girl of Experience

It is the custom when dining at a restaurant for a woman to precede a man when going to the table, but it is not uncommon for the man to go first, and good taste and common sense will probably make this latter the rule.

A menu card is given to the woman as well as to the man, but she has nothing to do with ordering the dinner unless the man asks her to make some selection. Even then she should not do much suggesting.

If her escort asks her to choose a salad or her own sweet she should do so without hesitation, as she should answer any question frankly before the food has been ordered. After the order has been given she should refrain from suggestion or critical comment.

If she wishes the waiter to give her a fork or any other small article that may be required through the meal she is not to ask the waiter for it, but to tell her escort that he may send for it.

A woman is not supposed to give a waiter any order, but to act in all ways as though she were in a private house.

On leaving the table the woman follows or precedes the man, as she wishes. She should put on her gloves before leaving the table.

COLORS AND TRIMMINGS

Fairy-like Effects to Entrance the Vision Feminine

A note of red, cerise, French blue, or emerald green is very often introduced into the black and white frock, and bits of Persian or Russian figured silk or embroidery are also used as trimmings; but some of the very best looking trotting frocks in the black and white are entirely without color relief, the color note being to the left parasol, etc., used with the frock.

Large quantities of metallic trimmings, almost all in the vieux or dull finish, are shown in the shops and on the imported models. Gowns, laces, embroideries, braids of all kinds, net, everything imaginable in the metallic line, gleams dully on the trimming counters, and cord in the dull gold, silver and gunmetal is in great demand now that the cord girdles are so much the thing for defining the high waist line of the empire frock. These girdles, ready for use with pendant or tassel finish, are also offered in the trimming department, as are the same cords in black and colors.

HANDY HINTLETS

Ammonia is a great cleanser for porcelain, but when dirt and grease demand an extra agent use kerosene. It will do the work thoroughly. Apply with a rag and wash off with warm soapsuds.

A light diet, largely composed of fruit and vegetables, is best for spring.

If tea stains resist the usual boiling water, whisky is sure to take it out.

Clam or oyster shells dumped into the fire act like magic in freeing the grate of clinkers.

Scalloped oysters are much better if cooked in individual dishes rather than a pudding dish.

A weak solution of oxalic acid will freshen old straw matting. It should be applied with a woolen cloth.

It is a wise precaution against getting holes in delicate hosiery to powder the shoes before putting them on.

When not in use, expensive knives should be wrapped in tissue paper and locked in the box belonging to them.

Teacups that have turned brown, and silver that is discolored by egg, can be brightened by rubbing with wet salt.
