the city commissioner published in the Daily News yester- at which each member will give a day. It was an encouraging report in that it indicates we paper. are on the way toward again becoming solvent within a reasonable time. Given a few years of careful administration, the credit of the city will be restored.

The commissioner will need the support of the citizens if he is to continue to make a success of his work. He seems to have had that support pretty well since he came here. Taxes have been paid better than was expected although, pital, returned to the city on the naturally, there was a falling off just as was the case in Cardena this morning from Vicother cities.

Of course there had to be criticism and that came chiefly annual convention of the British in regard to the commissioner's high school policy. Many Columbia Hospitals Association. disagreed with him there and the criticism was voiced Lino Colussi of this city, who susplainly. It must be remembered, however, that the action tained two broken toes and painof the late government in withdrawing support from the fully lacerated feet three weeks ago municipalities had made necessary economies which to on being caught in a shaft at the many seemed oppressive.

Now we are glad to know that the city is in such condition that it can weather the storm and, given a couple gress at the Port Simpson Hospital more years of management such as we are getting now, and is expected to be able to leave we shall be pretty well re-established as a flourishing com- that institution tomorrow either for munity.

RECOGNIZING RUSSIA

The United States has recognized Russia. It is the consummation of a movement that has been discussed and pressed for some time. It is possible that the strained re- Aged Pioneer of lations between Japan and Russia may be improved by this act of President Roosevelt.

The delay in extending recognition seems to have been caused by the dislike of the people of the United States for the Soviet form of government and more particularly to
