Prejudice

(Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, B.A., Pastor, First Presbyterian Church)

In the gospel story we read of only one man who hesitated when invited to become a follower of Jesus Christ. He was Nathaniel. He hesitated because of his prejudice towards the city of Nazareth. "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" he asked somewhat scornfully. History and literature abound in illustrations of the force and power of prejudice. Never#____ ter, for example, and he will be tian church can never be proud.
