

TWO MORE BRITISH SUBJECTS KILLED BY MEXICANS

ANOTHER WHITE HOUSE WEDDING YESTERDAY--BASEBALL BOY'S NOVEL ELECTION SCHEME

DAUGHTER OF THE PRESIDENT WEDS SECRETARY OF TREASURY

CEREMONY WAS SIMPLE AFFAIR COMPARED WITH WEDDING OF SISTER--SMALL NUMBER OF GUESTS WERE PRESENT AND FEW OFFICIALS

(Special to The Daily News)
Washington, May 7.—Eleanor Roosevelt was married yesterday to William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, in the historic blue room of the White house. Less than 100 persons were present and only a few officials. It was a simple ceremony in contrast to that of last November.

BASEBALL BOYS DECIDE ON STRAW BALLOT FOR OFFICERS

EVERYBODY, EVEN THE LADIES, WILL HAVE A CHANCE TO VOTE FOR OFFICERS OF BASEBALL LEAGUE

The baseball boys had a meeting last evening to organize a league and they prepared a scheme for selecting the officers. They are going to let the people elect them.
Everybody will have a voice. All that have to do is to write the names of your favorite candidates for the four offices on a piece of paper, sign the paper and put it in one of the boxes provided for the ballots.

H. Tobey, W. D. Vance, T. D.
Pattullo, V. A. Cole, Geo. D. Tite, Geo. Frizzell, S. P. McMordie and J. H. Pillsbury.

The four having the highest number of votes shall be elected in the above order according to the number of votes polled by each.

The ladies will be allowed to vote. All ballots must be signed.
Each person can vote on four names or less. Boxes will be placed at the post office, corner of Third and Sixth and the Empress theatre corner. Voting closes at 10 p. m. Saturday.

ANY SUGGESTIONS FOR A COMPROMISE

Government Is Willing but the Unionists Are Standing Pat

London, May 7.—At the recent Irish conversations the leaders of both parties only touched on the fringes of the question of home rule. The Unionists declare that their number is influential enough to prevent the Unionist party, both in the house of commons and in the lords, from accepting home rule even with the amending bill.
The government representatives say the bill must pass at all risk. It is understood that the government is willing to negotiate some basis for settlement as follows:

To amend the customs, the finance and post office provisions; to give a separate bill giving Ulster the option to contract to stay out, not in blue or in such a way as to give Belfast the power to determine the fate of the subdivisions of Tyrone and Fermanagh.

If no time limit is arranged the imperial parliament is to be given the power to vote Ulster in if they are prepared to do so in the Dublin parliament.

Another condition that the government is prepared to consider is that the government set up a statutory commission representing both parties for the purpose of devising a federal scheme for the United Kingdom.
The date upon which this scheme could become operative would be, say, six years after accomplishing a united Ireland.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

Hall on Beach Place was Scene of Merry Gathering Last Evening

The local railway men's association met in their hall on Beach place last evening and enjoyed a good entertainment.
Nearly 100 were present. President McLeod was in the chair.

The program included a recitation and a song by B. Stockwell, a song by J. Keine, a song by T. McKinnon, a song by S.
Ball, a song by D. McIlravy, a cornet solo and a song by J. Mc-Kenzie, and a song by A. King-horn. The accompanist for the evening was J. Austin. The association had a first-class piano.
In addition to the musical side of the program, there were some fine exhibitions of pugilism.
Three bouts of three rounds each were put on as exhibitions, as follows: 125-pound class, T. Gil-mour vs. B. Walker; 140-pound class, T. McKinnon vs. B. Ray; 150-pound class, H. Landes vs.
G. Chalmers. Two tugs of war proved very exciting. One was between the boilermakers and machine shop men, which was won by the former. The second one was between the blacksmiths and J. Ross' gang. The latter won. The gathering broke up after the singing of "God Save the King."

A business meeting of the association will be held next Thursday evening.

Party Prospectors Coming

Desiring to obtain prices on an outfit with which to prospect in the interior, the leader of a party of four Chicago men, now en route to Prince Rupert via Sea-attle, has written to the board of trade to secure information. The party wants twelve saddle and pack ponies, pack and riding saddles, blankets, tents, guns, ammunition, provisions, gold pans, etc.

J. J. Self, father of Ben Self, proprietor of the Empress cafe, has just returned from a six months' stay at the Lakelse fish hatchery. Mr. Self is looking hale and hearty and looks as though the Lakelse had renewed his youth.

PAYMASTER M'KENZIE ROBBED OF $2,500

Had Wad of Bills and Cheques Stolen From His Pocket

Alex. McKenzie, paymaster for Norman McLeod, contractor, was touched for $2,500 worth of bills and cheques coming down on the train Tuesday night. Fortunately most of the amount was in cheques, but about $50 of it was in bills. The wad was in a pocket book inside his coat. He missed it just after coming through Kitselas tunnel and the provincial police were notified. Constable Russell was on the train and searched many of the passengers, but found nothing.

After arriving here payment on the cheques was stopped and the amount of these will not be lost, but the money is probably gone. No clue has been found of the thief. It is now thought the pocket book was dropped somewhere and picked up.

ENTIRE SEPARATION OR CIVIL WAR FOR ULSTER

Government Warned to Base Its Diplomacy on Force

London, May 7.—Parliamentarians are talking budget and Eloyd Georgism; but their thoughts are of Ulster truce-lence, not conciliation, is the keynote of the speeches on both sides. The essence of the speeches of A. J. Balfour and Lord Milner was the clean separation of Ulster or civil war.
Practically all the Unionist press echoes this alternative sympathetically.

Percy Hingsworth, chief Liberal whip, aroused much enthusiasm among the radicals at Bradford by stating that the government had been dealing with treasonable men and treasonable practices too leniently.
It had handled the conspiracy, and the conspirators, he said, with insufficient severity.

The ministerial Daily Chronicle derides what it calls Winston Churchill's unauthorized unbendings. They are luxuries, it says, of which no party can safely allow its spokesmen too many.

The Manchester Guardian solemnly adjures the government not again to be caught unawares.
"If the diplomacy of Ulster is based upon the possibility of an appeal to force, so must the diplomacy of the government," it says.

Significant speeches were delivered at a women's meeting in aid of the Nationalist volunteer movement at the Mansion house, Dublin. The president said:

"Our countrymen in Ulster are arming themselves against the idea that Ulster is a nation.
We of the Nationalist volunteers are arming ourselves in favor of the idea of one undivided union of the Irish nation."

Miss Spofford Green, the historian, spoke, and Wilfrid Seawen Blunt sent a message saying: "Long experience in British imperial ways has taught me that in dealing with the British government the best moral force is material force. Until parliament is opened on College green, the British empire is still the enemy."

In the house of commons Mr.
Asquith persisted in his refusal to answer further questions regarding Ulster. He added, however, that if any new facts arose he would be glad to answer questions.

TERRACE BALL FANS ARE GETTING BUSY

Baseball Club Organized and Officers Elected—Have Excellent Grounds

A meeting was held in Terrace on the 4th inst. for the purpose of organizing a baseball club and selecting a team to represent Terrace in the league recently formed. The boys were very enthusiastic and no time was lost in starting the Terrace Athletic association on what promises to be a prosperous career.

Mr. Robt. Ross was elected president of the association and captain of the ball team, and Mr.
J. W. Scott was elected secretary of the association and manager of the team.

A subscription list is in circulation which is meeting with good success, and the ball grounds are being put in first-class shape. Terrace recognizes no baseball field in northern British Columbia as its superior.

Drowned in Trout Stream

Bella Coola, May 7.—The disappearance of Colonel Robert F.
Linsdell, who went out with rod and line to a fishing stream, has saddened the god folk of Bella Coola. He was staying at the home of S. Le C. Grant and when he failed to return from his expedition a search was made for him. It is supposed that the colonel attempted to cross a swiftly running stream and was swept off his feet under one of the numerous log jams and there drowned.

New Governor-General

London, May 7.—Prince Alexander of Teck, third son of the late Duke of Teck and brother of Queen Mary, is to succeed the Duke of Connaught as governor-general of Canada.

St. Andrew's Society

The monthly business meeting of the St. Andrew's society will be held in the Society rooms tonight at 8 o'clock.

MILITARY ESTIMATES REQUIRE CONSIDERATION

House Took Up Estimates of Col.
Sam Hughes but Were Rather Staggered

Ottawa, May 8.—The estimates of the minister of militia were taken up yesterday, but no items were passed. Further consideration will be resumed at a later date.

BIGGEST ADVERTISING FIRM ON THE PLANET

It Is the Catholic Church, Declares Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan

London, May 7.—Father Bernard Vaughan, in an address to the Aldwych club, declared that religion was the only thing worth advertising. Nevertheless, he admitted, other things needed to be advertised—even footwear, clothes or soap. He belonged, he said, to the oldest and biggest advertising firm on the planet—the Catholic church. She believed that she had wares that defied competition and she put them in her shop windows, proclaiming for all she was worth:
"Come, even you without money, and buy."

Why had they music, the ritual and preaching in the church, if it were not to advertise the supplies they possessed for the demands of the human soul? In view of these things so splendid, they were justified in making use of advertising.

The Catholic church, he concluded, to use the phraseology of the United States, had been on the job two thousand years, and had "delivered the goods" all the time.

TO PASS HOME RULE AND THEN AMEND IT

Scheme Which Will Allow Both Sides to Save Their Faces

Toronto, May 7.—A special cable from Belfast says:

"The government's intention is stated here to be to follow the plan of placing the present home rule bill on the statute books with convenient haste and embodying whatever settlement is arrived at in an amending bill so that the present measure will never come into force in its existing shape."

"One advantage of this program will be to save the face of the Nationalists, who will be able to claim that they have secured their main purpose and will perhaps be more ready to agree to the further terms which the commons may require from them."

"The chief reason for this course is that the Unionists of both houses will refuse to accept responsibility for home rule."

"They will divide against it every time. The measure will be rejected by the lords on the second reading and will be made law only through the operation of the parliament act."

"The Unionists will then do what they can to mitigate the mischief by getting the best possible conditions on behalf of the loyalists of Ireland, the all-important understanding to be arrived at, if possible, before the bill is presented to the king for his signature."

John Currie, the contractor in charge of the construction of John McRae's house on Fourth avenue east, is making splendid progress with the work. This will be one of the costliest and best laid out houses in town. Mr.
Currie is making a name for himself since he entered the contracting business.

TWO BRITISH SUBJECTS AND ONE AMERICAN ARE KILLED

WAR IN MEXICO GOES MERRILY ON — CONSTITUTIONALISTS ARE PUSHING FORWARD AND MAKING FOR THE SOUTH

Washington, May 8.—Developments in the Mexican situation are going steadily forward. The two chief reports from Mexico announce the killing of two British subjects and one American at Guadalajara. There is continued heavy fighting at Mazatlan. The state department has been informed that the movement of the constitutionalist forces is southward against Saltillo, Zacatecas.

Leg Caught in Fly Wheel

W. Hughes, a resident of Lasqueti island, was taken to the Nanaimo hospital a few days ago for treatment of a compound fracture of the right leg. The accident occurred when Hughes and two companions were a short distance from Lasqueti island, bound by launch for Vancouver. In passing the gasoline engine Hughes' trouser leg caught in the fly wheel and the man's leg was wound around the wheel, breaking the leg in two places. Despite his terrible injuries, Hughes bore up well, and did not receive treatment until he reached the hospital in Na-naimo, some six hours after the accident. The injuries sustained by Hughes are very serious, and it is feared the injured limb will have to be amputated.

A Tip for a Holiday

"Bill" Armstrong, the big, handsome, cheery ticket collector for the G. T. P. on the Prince Rupert-Hazelton run, and incidentally one of the best known and most popular boys in the northern country, was laid over at New Hazelton on the last trip and took advantage of the chance to get acquainted with the district surrounding that town. He says it is a beautiful country and he recommends it to the holiday travellers or those who want a day's outing. "You can't beat it," says Bill, and he knows what the people like.

J. Jansen Fuhr, the Norwegian lecturer, will give his moving picture illustrated lectures on Norway and Sweden in the Majestic theatre this evening and tomorrow evening. A different lecture with different films will be used each night.

A brush fire on Third avenue near the Daily News office caused an alarm to be sent to the department about 9 o'clock last evening. A couple of pails of water extinguished it.

Lieut. Delamont of the Salvation army went south this morning en route to England, where she will recruit her health.

WENDELL MURPHY WINS IN DAILY NEWS CONTEST

Recipient of Handsome New Suit of Clothes from Acme Clothing House—Prizes to Continue

Master Wendell Murphy is one of the happiest boys in Prince Rupert. He is the winner of The Daily News' boys' contest prize for the month of April and has just received the handsome new suit of clothes which was advertised in The Daily News. With his father and mother assisting him, he went through the magnificent stock of the Acme Clothing house and Mr. Schienman of that company says he picked one of the best suits in their boys' department, so you bet he got some suit.

Wendell is a son of Mr. A. A.
Murphy, who is in charge of one of the departments in the dry dock construction.

This is but the first of a series of prizes to be given to the boys who sell The Daily News. With every five copies of the Daily News sold there will be a ticket given which will entitle the boy making the sale to a chance in a drawing for a nice suit of clothes. One drawing will take place each month. This means that some boy will get a suit of clothes every month from The Daily News free of cost. Besides this he makes the usual profit on selling the paper. This contest goes into effect May 15 and the drawing will be on the 15th of each month. Now boys get busy.

Somebody remarked the other day that the big cuts carried in The Daily News by the Twentieth Century Clothing company were not effective advertising. This caused a bystander to say: "That ad. gives me the impression that Twentieth Century clothes are acme of perfection. When I want a nobby suit I naturally think of Twentieth Century clothes and then drop in to Bryant Co. and get it." It pays to advertise.

Mrs. W. J. Jefferson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E.
A. Oakley, left this morning for her home on Vancouver island.
