London Brokers Happy At Reaping Rich Profit

With smiles of joy upon their fa 'es once more, the stockbrokers of the London Curb market make notations of the day's profits af or the close of the exchange, following an exciting session during which gold shares becmed. This boom was due to the action of the United States to devalue the dollar and nationalize the entire gold supply of the country. The move has stirred interest in all firancial centres of the world, and gold-holders are attempting to unload their srplus in the United States to obtain the high prices offered by the government.
