In the light of recent development it is expected that ore bodies will widen and increase in value with depth. The cross-cut tunnel, which has already cut two veins, is rapidly being pushed toward objective "C" vein. Installation of a pilot mill will follow the striking of the "C" vein by the cross-cut tunnel.

along the local waterfront there may be considerable competition for supplies of sockeye salmon in picture which is being presented these parts again this year. While this mid-week at the Capitol Theaa price of fifty cents has been tre here, is adapted from an oriagreed upon by the canners, some of the independent buyers are said to be ready to pay sixty cents. Last spiced with catchy song hits and season, it will be recalled, competition among the buyers forced the price well up above what was originally agreed upon.

Massett Canners service boat Jedway, Capt. Johnny Hartlin, returned to port Sunday night from a trip to Massett, having on board John Dybhavn, president and general manager of Massett Canners, who paid a brief visit to the cannery plant at Old Massett which is to be operated again this year.

Having had Edward Lipsett of Vancouver, head of the firm of Ed ward Lipsett Limited, and the local to make his first appearance as a manager, W. E. Drake on board, the local halibut boat and seiner Balsac I, Capt. John Orvik, returned to port yesterday from a trip to the Naas River and the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel had been away since Saturday.

Two Canadian National Steamships liners arrived in port this morning. At 9 o'clock the steamer Prince John, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arrived from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands with passengers, mail and freight and will remain here until 10 o'clock Friday night when she will sail on her return south over the same route. At 10:45 a.m. the Prince George, Capt. Opened Last Eve H. E. Nedden, docked from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

Marion Davies and Bing Crosby in "Going Hollywood" at Capitol Theatre

ginal story which gives a key-hole view of the real Hollywood and is! bizarre dance ensembles which make it one of the most entertaining films of the year. Marion Davies and Bing Crosby are the featured players with Fifi D'Orsay, Stuart Erwin, Ned Sparks, Patsy Kelly and Bobby Watson also in important parts. Numerous original dance ensembles are set in gorgeous, colorful locales. The song hits include "Going Hollywood." "We'll Make Hay While the Sun Shines," "Temptation," "Cinderella's Fella" and "After Sundown."

The story deals with a lonely girl in love with a crooner's voice who! trails him to Hollywood where he is film star. After much difficulty. with a flighty and temperamental French actress, who also loves the same crooner, the heroine becomes a star in her own right and there is a happy romantic ending.
