STEWART PLEASED

Stewart people are very pleased with the move to repair their railway and put it in shape for operation. Even the repair work means the spending of money in town thus providing work and wages for the people. Prince Rupert will be glad to see the Portland Canal centre flourishing once more after a hard period of depression.

WHOLLY INADEQUATE

People of British Columbia will undoubtedly feel with Premier Pattullo that the setting aside of a million dollars for the purpose of providing for unemployment in the province is wholly inadequate. After years of relief sustenance men are now looking for an opportunity to earn reasonable wages. They are as tired of loafing as the rest of the people are tired of providing relief. We agree with the C. C. F. speaker last night when he said the present system as administered did not meet the needs of the day. There must be a change but we do not think the change should be along the lines favored by the C. C. F. It is easy to point to the working of the present system and say it is all wrong. It has been evolved during a long period of years but the process of evolution has slowed up of late and it has become necessary to go a step further. Work and wages based on the national credit is probably the most logical step. We don't care whether it is the Pattullo system or the Douglas credit system or what system provided the men get the work and wages. Conditions are steadily improving and more men are going to work almost every day but they should not have been allowed to be idle so long.

CUT CAPERS ON DIAMOND

Burlesque Softball Game Staged by Gyros and Rotarians Thursday Afternoon

The burlesque parade and softball game Thursday afternoon between players representing the Rotary and Gyro Clubs proved diverting entertainment of a very mirthful nature for a large crowd of fun-seeking fans. The antics of the service club members, garbed as dark and white ladies were very comical. Both sides were so good that it was decided it would be unfair to declare either the winner.

YOUTH HAS ITS VOICE

considerable time to provincial matters. He reviewed some of the legislation of the last session of the Legislature, charging that the Pattullo government had done nothing to implement its promise of work and wages. The speaker mentioned briefly the Male Minimum Wage Act and the economic advance council and scoffed at the idea of advocating a "back to the land" movement as a step towards relief of prosperity. Already farmers could find no market for their products which they had to destroy and, indeed, many farmers were in relief.

Mr. Winch described as the "nihilite of the session" the Special Powers Act which conferred upon Premier Pattullo powers of dictatorship comparable to those held by Mussolini in Italy and Hitler in Germany. He was empowered to make any new law and to amend existing statute, to develop and dispose of natural resources without consulting the legislature, to borrow money on the credit of the province and to control property and civil rights in the province. The Legislature was a joke, he said, the speaker. The Liberal members were rubber stamps merely carrying out orders which came from above. Even the Liberal caucus was dictated to.

There were only two courses to follow--that of the capitalist system which would lead to dictatorship and industrial feudalism or a new system of socialism, was up to the people to choose and the speaker urged them to take their responsibilities and act accordingly.

Following Mr. Winch's address there was a question period.

W. C. Shelly of Vancouver, former provincial minister of finance was a passenger aboard the Princess Louise Thursday going through for a trip into the Atlin district where he has mining interests.
