Quietly Wedded Here Last Eve

Miss Sarah Jane De-Vine of Vancouver Becomes Bride of William Rogers

The marriage was quietly solemnized last evening at the home of Miss Jessie Rothwell, Fifth Avenue East, of Miss Sarah Jane De-Vine R.N. and William Wesley Rogers, both of whom recently arrived from Vancouver. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. F. W. Dufour, pastor of First Baptist Church, and only intimate friends of the contracting couple were present.

Mr. Rogers, who lived here in the early days as a boy but has for many years made his home in Vancouver, returned recently to take a position with the Northern Fishermen's Co-operative cold storage plant. He and Mrs. Rogers will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends. They will reside in the home of Miss Rothwell until she returns to the city.

TWO YEAR SENTENCE

William Cairnie Goes To Penitentiary For Killing of Sid Westbrook

KAMLOOPS, June 9:—(Canadian Press)—William Cairnie was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in penitentiary yesterday by Mr. Justice Denis Murphy after a jury at the session of the Supreme Court Assizes had found Cairnie guilty of manslaughter with a strong recommendation for mercy in connection with the slaying of Sid Westbrook, Pacific Great Eastern Railway section foreman at Clinton, on March 20, Westbrook was shot four times.

Mrs. Cairnie testified that Westbrook had attempted to assault her twice but that her husband had intervened both times after her screams had attracted him.

Camera Clicks As Officer Clubbed to Death In Riot

Here are remarkable photos of the clubbing to death of C. Arthur Lyman, prominent civic worker of Minneapolis, Minn., who was acting as a special deputy sheriff in an effort to fight the rioters. The photo at left shows a rioter who appears to have taken a mighty swing and felled the deputy. At the right the photo shows men rushing up to aid the fallen man. This was the only fatality of the truck-drivers rioting, though 45 were injured, many heads and jaws being cracked in the fierce hand-to-hand fighting. It was only a few minutes after this that a truce was declared.

ABROGATE TREATIES

Senate Committee to Recommend
New Deal on Pacific Sealing
And Halibut Agreements

OTTAWA, June 9: (CP)—The special Senate committee on sealing and fisheries is expected to recommend next week that the existing pelagic sealing and halibut treaties with United States be abrogated and that the Dominion make representations that there should be negotiated a single treaty covering salmon, sealing and halibut, it is learned. The committee's report is now being prepared and it is understood that it will be unanimous.

Firemen and Watertenders Refuse to Man Ships Because They Were Left Out of Agreement and Prevent Loading of Alaska Cargo

SEATTLE, June 9: (CP)—The waterfront here was in chaos again today as crews on ships scheduled to sail for Alaska refused to serve, declaring that they had been left out of the agreement signed yesterday with the longshoremen. Pickets from firemen's and watertenders' unions stopped truckloads of freight in front of the docks and union officials said that no cargo would be allowed to leave until their demands were granted.

Meantime Alaska is still awaiting the arrival of much-needed food and fishing equipment which it had been thought would start moving immediately following settlement of the Alaska phase of the dispute between longshoremen and shipping interests.

At San Francisco
SAN FRANCISCO, June 9:—Word was being awaited here yesterday confirming settlement of the dispute between the shipping companies and longshoremen.
