Walter L. Sheeler, vice-president and managing director of the Norgold Mines Ltd., which is operating in the Atlin district, and Mrs. Sheeler were passengers aboard the Princess Norah yesterday going north for the season after having spent the winter in Vancouver and elsewhere in the south.

A canine traveller returned to his home in Prince Rupert aboard the Princess Norah yesterday morning following a trip to Vancouver in Percy Tinker's young wire-haired terrier dog which wandered aboard the Norah one afternoon some weeks ago when she was in port and was carried south by the vessel. Later the dog was located in Vancouver with the result that it was returned home yesterday.

On a regular fortnightly voyage to Skagway and other northern points, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 10:15 yesterday morning from Vancouver and sailed at 11:30 for the north whence she is scheduled to call here on Thursday afternoon on her southbound voyage. The vessel had on board thirty-seven passengers of whom three disembarked here, half a dozen or so going north aboard her from here.

Rev. P. M. Fosse, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, who was called to Everett, Washington, a couple of weeks ago on account of the condition of Mrs. Fosse's continued illness, returned to the city from the south on the Catala last evening.

W. H. Tolin, proprietor of the King Edward Hotel at Stewart and also prominently identified with the Mountain Boy mine in the Portland Canal district, was a passenger aboard the Catala last night returning to Stewart after a trip to Vancouver.
