New Agency Is Established

James Martin of Massett Appointed Distributor For New Battery and Felix Batt Local Agent

James Martin of Massett has been in the city during the past two or three days making arrangements for establishing a distributing centre here for "Suprox", the new oxide battery He has been made distributor for Northern British Columbia for this wonderful new invention which he claims wil lsoon supercede all old types.

Felix Batt has been placed in charge of the local centre and he will have his office on Second Avenue. Mr. Martin, who has for years conducted a general store at Massett, will continue his business there but will spend part of his time here and in other parts of the territory as far east as Prince George.

United Church St. Patrick's Tea

Pretty Affair Held Yesterday Afternoon in Attractively Decorated Parlors

The St. Patrick's tea and sale held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the First United Church yesterday afternoon was a very pleasant and successful affair in spite of the weather.

The church parlors looked as if a little bit of Ireland had been transplanted there for the occasion, the gay little shamrock dominating the decorations of green and yellow.

Mrs. James Krikevsky, the new president of the Ladies' Aid in succession to Mrs J. J. Payne, who has resigned owing to ill-health, was assisted in receiving by Mrs C. D. Clarke. The tea table, centred with a pretty vase of daffodils, was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mrs. H. Alton, Mrs. G. W. Dunn and Mrs. R. G. Large.

The committees in charge for the afternoon were:

Tea room, Mrs. E P. Jenner and Mrs. Clavring; serving, Mrs. M. Sollows, Mrs J. Ciccone, and Misses Ruby Krikevsky, Elizabeth Wilson and Dorothy Stiles.

Home cooking, Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson, Mrs. N. Thomas and Mrs. Moore.

Candy stall, Miss M. MacGregor.

Cashier, Mrs. D. Santerbane.

A very acceptable instrumental program of Irish music was rendered during the afternoon. This included violin duets by Misses Elsie Franks and Edith Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Black, and piano solos by Miss Maxine Heilbroner and Miss Edith McLean.

Mrs. W. T. Kergin and Mrs. T. Silversides were responsible for the program and Mrs. Lance Stiles and Miss Dorothy Stiles for the decorations.

'BOWERY' IS GREAT FILM

All Elements of Picture Entertainment Combined With Wallace Berry and Jackie Cooper

Comedy in action and dialogue, human interest, pathos, thrills, excitement, spectacle and romance—in short, all audience-entertaining elements—are said to be included in "The Bowery," which is the week-end feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. With interest for women just as powerful as the appeal for the men, the picture is declared to be understandingly enough produced to be also acceptable for the children. "Rough, tough and boisterous, yet, paradoxially it's also beautiful," writes one critic.

The title suffices to tell what the story is about, a saga of personalities, events, times and conditions that are rapidly becoming American mythology. Such famous characters as Chuck Connors, Steve Brodie' "Swipes," John L. Sullivan and Carrie Nation are depicted in the yarn of the Spanish-American War days

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper of "Champ" fame head the cast with George Raft, Fay Wray, Pert Kelton and Oscar Apfel also having important roles.
