SPORT CHAT

Owing to the pre-Yuletide season activities, no games were played last night in the Ladies' Bowling League at the Elks' Home. The following games are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon in the Men's League:

Senior Elks vs. Lambie & Stone.

Fairlers vs. Canadian National Recreation Association.

Prince George and Vanderhoof badminton players recently staged a tournament on the Vanderhoof courts, the result being a tie with each team winning nine events. Standard of play was of a high order and most of the games were keenly contested. A return tournament will be played at Prince George early in the New Year. The Prince George players were Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott, Miss M. McMillan, Dr. MacArthur, H. E. Miller and G. L. Mortimer-Lamb. The Vanderhoof players were Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mrs. H. V. Taylor, Mrs. George Ogston, Miss Bessie Lamb, Miss Smedley, Miss Muir, Miss Mowbray, C. Campbell, J. Atkinson, George Ogston and Harry Taylor.

Above all the rest who reached degrees of competitive rating, 1934 placed five Canadians so high that in achievement they stand unrivalled. New champions were crowned—perhaps better champions. But 1934's individual champions in Canada are not new to fame as a group. Here are the "Big Five" of the year:

Phyllis Dewar of Moose Jaw, Sask., British Empire Games 100 and 440 yards free style swimming champion and member of two winning Canadian relay teams; Harold Webster, 40-year old Hamilton runner who won the British Empire marathon; Dave Komonen of Sudbury, Ont., Canadian and United States marathon champion; Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, who lost his welterweight title and then won it back; Marcel Rainville of Montreal, gallant little netman who, at the age of 30, won the Canadian singles tennis championship for the first time.
