Presbyterian Xmas Tree Last Night

Large Attendance at Church Hall Last Night—Program and Visit From Santa Claus

The annual Christmas Tree entertainment of the Sunday Schools of First Presbyterian Church and Westview took place jointly last night in First Presbyterian Church Hall, a large crowd of children as well as quite a number of parents being in attendance. With John E. Davey, superintendent of the Sunday School, in charge, a short program was rendered by the children after which Santa Claus appeared upon the scene and distributed attendance prizes to the children. Each child also received a package of candies. It was a very jolly affair for all the youngsters.

The program was as follows:
Chorus by the Junior Choir.
Recitation, Jean Calderwood.
Chorus by nine children.
Recitation, Forbes Lee.
Violin duet, Billy and Jimmy Hadden, accompanied by Miss Nellie Lawrence.
Vocal solo, Ina Robertson.
Recitation, Audrey Hunter.
Vocal solo, Sheila McRae.
Recitation, Viola Mary Prendergast.
Vocal solo, Betty Woods.
J. A. Teng assisted.

District News

ALICE ARM

Provincial Constable G. S. Blaney of Anyox was a visitor here at the end of last week on official duties.

J. Fiva, who has been located at Anyox for some time, has been spending a few days at his home here.

STEWART

As in the rest of the north, weather at Stewart is exceptionally mild for this time of year. So far, there is not over two inches of snow and green grass is showing under the trees. Ponds have not yet been frozen over and motors are still operating to Premier and American Creek without any difficulty.

An excellent job of river protection work was completed here last week by C. G. Jackson and his crew at the mouth of Bear River. In addition to building something over 200 feet of wing dam, large spruce trees were anchored along the bank for a distance of some 1500 feet.

Mrs. A. Mowatt of Premier left last week for Vancouver where she will spend the Christmas and New Year holiday season.

VANDERHOOF

For the fifth time, Miss Bessie Lamb of Vanderhoof Superior School has been awarded the Stratheona Trust Prize for efficiency in physical training in the Prince George inspectorate.

The local skating rink was opened at the end of last week for the first time this season.
