It was is expected. the leading theme of the addresses at the dinner last evening and the Daily News front page editorial published COURT LIST yesterday was much discussed by the visitors. Despatches were wired to the Vancouver newspapers featuring the need. All this comes about as a result of the visit. Other matters were laid before them which set them thinking but the highway was outstanding. It will be well for Prince Rupert to keep this the outstanding theme from now on until the highway is completed.

A genuine relief racket in this city which all who care may witness has not yet been discovered by either yourself or contemporary. Advantage has been taken to exploit relief workers, without footwear, clothing or adequate sustenance, to get this work done.

We, the unemployed, can only conclude that after eight months in office the promises of the Liberal government anent work and wages have fizzled out. Under present conditions, the unemployed have nothing to show for their work while the government and private concerns are benefitting to the extent of thousands of dollars. Personally. I think that it is the authorities who are the demoralized by the imposing of such iniquitous aemands. The unemployed are being used to lower wages.

First Cricket Match Concludes at Nottingham Today With Visitors Victorious

NOTTINGHAM, June 12: (CP) -A crowd of more than thirty thousand persons today saw the Australians, after assuming a substantial advantage over England on Monday, win the first of the season's test cricket matches by a margin of 238 runs, the scores at the close of play being: Australia, 374 and 273 for eight wiekets: England, 268 and 141.

The Aussie bowlers proved too tough on the crumbling wicket for the Englishmen who tried desperately to draw. The last five English wickets were collared for only thirty-one runs.

Australia declared just before lunch, giving England the task of having to get 380 runs for a win in less than six hours.

At the close of play yesterday, the scores were: Australia. 374 and 159 for three wickets: England, 268.
