HAD GOOD DAY HERE

Members of Vancouver Board of Trade Off to Stewart and Anyox at Midnight

In continuation of their coastal excursion, members of the Vancouver Board of Trade, after having spent the day here, left Prince Rupert at midnight last night on board the steamer Prince Rupert for Anyox where this morning was spent visiting the workings of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co., departure being made from there early this afternoon for Stewart where the party is due this evening.

Immediately after arrival at Stewart, the party will make a brief automobile tour up the Bear River Valley with visits to the Dunwell mine and the tramway terminal of the United Empire mine. Tonight there will be a dance at Stewart and bright and early tomorrow morning departure will be made for the Premier mine following an inspection of which the visitors will be luncheon guests of Dale L. Pitt, general manager of the Premier Gold Mining Co.

Late tomorrow afternoon the party will leave Stewart for the Queen Charlotte Islands, brief stops to be made on Thursday at Queen Charlotte City and Cumshewa Inlet.

Enjoyed Stay Here

The visitors, apparently, enjoyed their stay here yesterday. After being left in the morning to their own devices, they were taken in charge in the afternoon by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Some made a trip to Metlakatla aboard the Armour Salvage Co's service boat Salvage Princess while others visited the plant of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. and were taken for a spin out the Skeena River Highway. Last evening there was a dinner aboard the steamer at which the visitors were hosts to City Commissioner W. J. Alder and members of the council of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

the city. He mentioned the disability of northern lumbermen when the three-cent duty was placed on timber products. Under this new deal which he proposed the influence of Vancouver would go to help get disabilities removed and to develop the pulp industry in Prince Rupert. He still had faith in the country in which he had lived for the past twenty-five years.

John Dybhavn, president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, who was the first speaker, welcomed the visitors to Prince Rupert and thanked them for their hospitality in entertaining the members of the council of the local chamber of commerce at dinner.

George Kidd, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, presided and T. S. Dixon, past president, concluded with a brief address.
