Department to be Reorganized Says Pearson—Resident Engineers Called to Conference

VANCOUVER, Oct. 4: (CP)—The Department of Mines is to be reorganized, Hon. G. S. Pearson, minister of mines, stated yesterday in addressing the mining bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Early in November all resident engineers will be called to Victoria for a week's discussion of problems and to work out departmental policy, particularly with a view to aiding mining by assisting in trail construction.

Mr. Pearson stated that he was satisfied that $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 could be spent to good advantage in building roads into mining areas but the difficulty was to secure the money.
