TEA-SALE

Delightful Affair by Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Yesterday

Under auspices of the Ladies' Aid of First Presbyterian Church a very successful spring tea and sale of home cooking was held yesterday afternoon in the church parlors which had been attractively decorated for the occasion. Weather was very auspicious for the occasion and many ladies called to lend their patronage to the affair. The guests were received by Mrs. C. G. Ham. president of the Ladies' Aid, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, wife of the pastor.

Mrs. J. G. Steen was convener of the tea room and Mrs. D. McD. Hunter and Mrs. G. H. Munro poured. Serviteurs were Mrs. W. H. Wilson-Murray, Mrs. John Bremner, Miss Jessie Rothwell, Mrs. W. D. Vance, Mrs. Rober's Davie, Mrs. G. W. Abbott and Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. J. O. Reddie acted as cashier.

The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. W. W. C. O'Neill and Mrs. Jack McRae. Convener for the sale of candy was Mrs. C. G. Ham, assisted by Miss Daisy Phell. Miss Beulah McKinley and Miss Viola Johnson. The plain and fancy sewing sale was in charge of Mrs. D. McLeod and Mrs. W. L. Sandison.

During the afternoon there was an acceptable musical program which included violin duets by Misses Edith Johnstone and Miss Pisie Franks, accompanied by Mrs. I. S. Black, vocal solos by Mrs. William Cruickshank and Mrs. A. J. 'Vahher, accompanied by Mrs. W. M Blackstock and Mrs. E. J. Smith. nd guitar solos by Miss Elizabeth

Two Famous Talking Picture Stars Appear Together For First Time In "Her Sweetheart"

Marie Dressler and Lionel Barrymore, probably the two most out- (7:30 & 9:30) standing character actors on the talking picture screen today, both of whom are always highly popular with Prince Rupert audiences, are teamed up for the first time as costars in "Her Sweetheart," which is the feature picture for the week- | Comedy-"WILD POSES" (OUR GANG) end at the Capitol Theatre here. | Monday & Tuesday-"BROADWAY THROUGH A KEYHOLE" Lieut. Col. S. P. McMordie D.S.O., the manager, is making preparations for capacity houses at all showings including the matinee tomorrow afternoon. It is said to be one of the finest pictures that has been presented here in many a day.

A vivid drama of New England life based on the famous New York stage hit "The Late Christopher Bean," the new picture presents both stars in characters for which they are eminently fitted. Miss Dressler enacts the part of Abby, a faithful old servant, while Barrymore is seen as a kindly country physician who, under the lash of avarice, turns to a scheming, grasping scoundrel seeking to rob heronly to have the woman's faith turn him back again to his lifelong path of honor;

Helen Mack, Jean Herscholt and H. B. Warner are among those having important supporting roles.
