Boy Scouts, 8. The Canadian National Recreation Association continued its losing streak by dropping the Senior League basketball game to the Grotto 36 to 44. It was just a case of the Grotto guards, J. Morrison and Stalker, holding off the trainmen while their two forwards went on a scoring spree to gather 32 points between them. Gurvich got 20 points and Morgan 12. The C. N. R. A. took an early lead at the start 8-2 but with seven minutes left of the first half, the Grotto started going to town. They stopped at the interval with a tie score of 13-all.

In the second half the Grotto continued sinking them and, when 3.00 the final gun went, the tobacconists 9.00 had an eight-point lead. It was just a basketball game and no more. It was fast in spots and ragged in others. The Grotto are favorites to win over the Moose on Thursday.
