lart, H. F. Pullen, Thomas McClymont, J. T. Harvey and City Commissioner W. J. Alder.

G. P. Lyons, vice-president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was present and was extended a hearty welcome by the chairman. A letter was ordered sent to the Junior Chamber expressing thanks for the invitation to members of the Senior Chamber to attend the recent Junior annual dinner.

The secretary was instructed to write the Pan American Airways, placing before the commercial aviation concern the suitability of this port as a base for any service which may be established between the United States and Alaska. The Canadian government has authorized the concern to establish a base in Northern British Columbia.

It was decided to take up with B. T. Chappell, general superintendent of the Canadian National Railways for British Columbia, the matter of employing local men and boys on the company's coastal vessels.

Freight Rates Taken Up

The matter of freight rates between Vancouver and Prince Rupert and Prince Rupert and Stewart and Anyox will be taken up with the freight department of the Canadian National Railways with view to obtaining adjustments. The port of Prince Rupert is at present discriminated against, it is claimed. The rate from Vancouver to Stewart or Anyox is only 35c a ton more pert while the rate from Prince Rupert to Stewart or Appear is group of than from Vancouver to Prince Rupert to Stewart or Anyox is over $6
