ity Over Grotto With 5 to 3 Victory

Canadian National Recreation Association last night defeated the Grotto by a score of 5 to 3 in one of of the year. Both Yager and Pitcher hurled good ball, Yager allowing : nine safeties while Pitcher let the Grotto down with seven safe blows. Unger, for C. N. R. A., was the individual star, handling eight chances with only one error. Hill and Nelson, for Grotto, got their signals mixed up in the fifth and let an easy fly ball drop safe, giving the C. N. R. A. a run. Stiles, a right field hitter, used good headwork in the ninth by placing a safe hit to left field, scoring a run for C. N. R. A. Poor coaching by Grotto cost them at least two runs.
