Ten Bombers Complete 940-Mile Flight South In Less Than 6 Hrs.

Development of Aviation Along North Pacific Coast Necessary, Declares Lieut. Col. Henry Arnold Of Aerial Squadron

SEATTLE, Aug. 18: (CP)—Ten huge United States Army bombing planes landed here at 5:55 last evening after a non-stop 940-mile flight from Juneau in five hours and forty-four minutes. Lieut. Col. Henry Arnold, who was in charge of the squadron, declared his belief that development of aviation in the Puget Sound region and along the Alaska coast is a prime necessity. He said that a tactical squadron could be dispatched AMENITIES quickly to Alaska in case of quickly to Alaska in case hreatened attack.

Col. Arnold felt that there should be a base field in the Seattle area, the field at Bellingham should be brought into use, that another anding field was needed at Ketchikan and there should be a better equipped field at Juneau.
