Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Paraguay And Bolivia Still Fighting

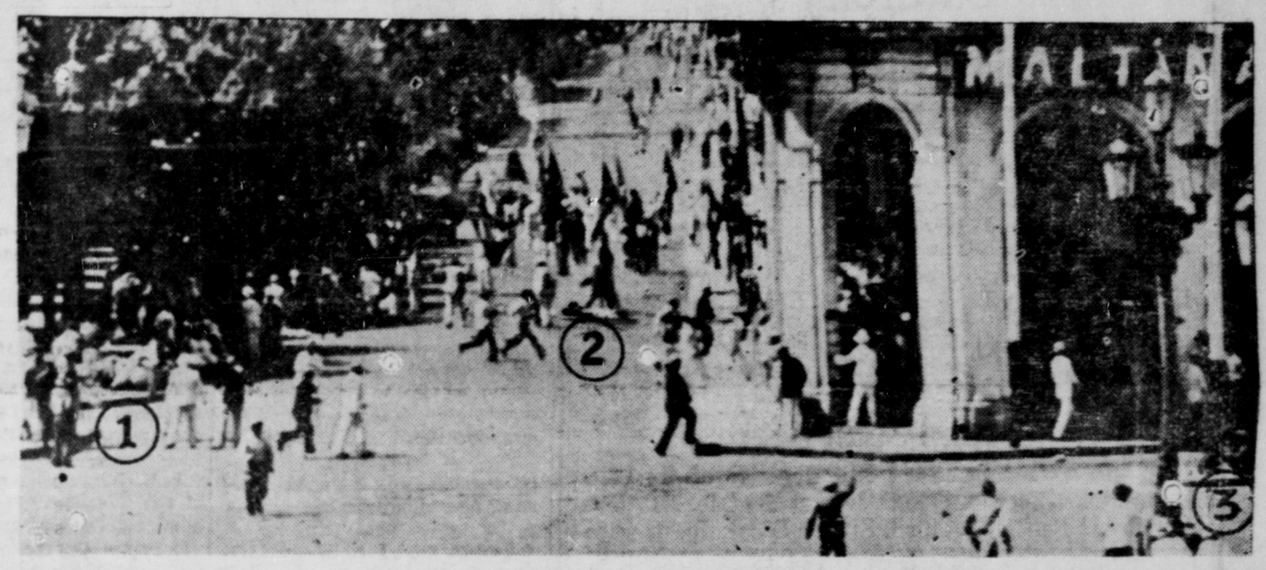
Machine Guns Spread Death and Terror in Cuba



A political parade of young students in a street of Havana, Cuba—the sudden spat-spat of machine guns—and death and terror swiftly follow. This remarkable picture shows actual fighting in which ten members of the student organization were killed and more than 40 wounded. No. 1 designates the location of machine gunners and some of the wounded. No. 2 marks a dead man in the middle of the street. No. 3 shows some of the paraders behind a lamp post, using their pistols to return the fire.
