From Victoria they will sail on the steamer Dorothy Alexander for San Francisco and thence will travel via the Panama Canal on the steamer Virginia to New York where they will embark on the Red Star liner Westernland for Antwerp. They will also motor on the continent and expect to be away about six months.

Cost Per Cup About the Same

Faced with the ruination of their industry, tea growers took drastic action a few months ago and restricted production, with the result that prices have advanced. Canadians will soon have to pay a little more for their tea, but a cup of finest tea such as "Salada" costs only one-fifth of a cent.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

The steamer Princess Louise will present a greatly altered interior when she arrives here on her first Alaska run of the 1934 summer season on June 18.

Work has commenced at Victoria on the complete remodelling of the two upper decks—boat deck and promenade, insofar as passenger accommodation is concerned. The result will be the enlargement and improvement of a large block of staterooms. The roof of the boat deck will be widened to provide additional shelter from the weather.

The summer service will be carried out by the Princess Louise and Princess Charlotte calling here Monday mornings northbound and Saturday afternoons southbound.

Charles Smith is expected to arrive in Prince Rupert by the end of this week to assume his duties as local manager for Edmunds & Walker, well known New Westminster fish handling and exporting concern, which is establishing a Prince Rupert branch. Mr. Smith was formerly assistant manager of the Kildonan reduction, cannery and cold storage plant on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. Headquarters for Edmunds and Walker's operations in this district will be in Prince Rupert although the actual activities will be centred at Balmoral cannery on the Skeena River which the company will use for the mild curing of salmon.

Frank Waterhouse freighter Northholm, Capt. Henry Porritt, arrived in port this morning from Vancouver with general cargo for discharge locally. The vessel was moored at the Canadian National dock this morning.

Northland Transportation Co.'s motorship Northland, Capt. Len Williams, arrived in port at 3 o'clock this morning from Ketchikan and, after discharging two carloads of fresh halibut for transshipment to the United States over the Canadian National Railways, sailed in continuation of her voyage to Seattle. It was the first call of the Northland here in several weeks.

With a rather light list of passengers, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Neddin, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

W. E. Bailly, well known chief engineer of Canadian National Steamships, who has been on the Atlantic Coast for the past few months as chief of the steamer Prince Henry, arrived on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver. He is here in connection with the annual overhaul at the local dry dock of the steamer Prince Rupert of which he is the regular chief engineer.

Among those who sponsored tables at the telephone bridge party held Monday night in aid of the Prince Rupert Public Library new book campaign were Capt. and Mrs. W. P. Armour, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. William McLeod, Sam Joy, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Church and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williamson
