St. Andrew's W. A. Scores Success With "Old Colonial Fair" Yesterday in Cathedral Hall

"Ye Old Colonial Fayre," which was held yesterday afternoon by the Woman's Auxiliary at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Hall, was a colorful, picturesque and highly successful affair. The beautiful old-fashioned gowns of taffeta and brocade with bustles and crinolines, caps and sidecurls excited much interest and comment. The hall was crowded with visitors, both ladies and gentlemen. In addition to the costumes, the decorations of flags and evergreens were also a feature, being both cheerful and effective. "Ye Old Tea Shoppe" was attractively set in a bower of greenery. Too H members were responsible for the decorations. The results of the affair, which took the place of the usual Easter bazaar, were very satisfactory.

The event was under the general convenership of Mrs. A. McCoskrie, the president, and was opened at 3 o'clock by Mrs. R. L. McIntosh who welcomed the visitors with a neat speech. The guests were received by Miss Eileen Gibson and Mrs. J. A. Hinton.

The following ladies had charge of the various departments:

Tea Room-Hostess, Mrs. Thomas Andrew; convener, Mrs. G. A. Woodland: pouring, Miss S. A. Mills, Mrs. A. T. Parkin and Mrs. J. C. Mc-Lennan: serviteurs, Mrs. A. R. Nichols, Mrs. J. G. Johns, Mrs. A.
