LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Baptist Tea February 14.

Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., regular monthly meeting Wednesday, January 10, 8 p.m. 6

Arthur Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moss of Alice Arm, sailed by the Catala last night on his return north after paying a brief visit to the city.

William Dann, manager of the United Empire mine at Stewart, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning north after a two weeks' trip to Vancouver.

E. J. Smith is making the round trip to Anyox and Stewart aboard the steamer Catala today on business. He sailed for the north last night and will return home tomorrow morning.

Father Leo Bosse O.M.I., Roman Catholic Church parish priest at Stewart, who has been spending the past few days in the city, sailed by the Catala last evening on his return to his post in the north.

Miss M. Nicholson, Stewart school teacher, was a passenger on board the Catala last evening returning north after having spent the Christmas and New Year vacation visiting at her home in Vancouver.

Ole Phillipson of North Pacific cannery arrived in the city on the Catala last evening being on his way beck to the Skeena River after spending the Christmas and New Year holiday season at Vancouver where Mrs. Phillipson and family are in residence for the winter.

With a good-sized list of passengers including school teachers for this city and district returning to their duties after spending the Christmas and New Year vacation visiting at their homes in the south, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 8 o'clock last evening from the south and sailed a couple of hours later for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

During the recent heavy snowfall, there was some uncertainty as to the responsibility of citizens in connection with the clearing of snow from the sidewalks. The following clause in the city street traffic and parking bylaw clears up the point: "It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any accumulation of snow or ice to remain upon any planked or paved sidewalk in front or abutting any premises owned or occupied by him after 10 o'clock in the morning of any day except Sunday within Fire Limits No. 1 (downtown business section) of for a longer period than twenty-four hours in any other part of the city."

Basketball tonight 7 o'clock.

Dr. Ole Kvale sailed by the Catala last evening on his return to Premier after spending the Christmas and New Year holiday season visiting in the city.

H. P. Johns of the teaching staff of King Edward High School returned to the city on the Catala last evening after spending the Christmas and New Year holiday season visiting at his home in Vancouver.

Saturday night's train from the East arrived at 2:30 a.m., four and a-half hours late, having been delayed by snow conditions on the Skeena division.

Jack Wynne, customs officer at Anyox, and Mrs. Wynne, who have been on a vacation trip to Vancouver, were passengers aboard the Catala last evening returning to the smelter town.

Dr. E. E. Lucas, principal of King Edward High School, was among local teachers returning to the city on the Catala last evening from Vancouver after having spent the Christmas and New Year vacation visiting in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. John McRae, who have been visiting in the city for the past three weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McRae, Fourth Avenue West, are leaving by this afternoon's train on their return to their home at Terrace.

Miss L. Perry was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning to her school teaching duties at Port Simpson after spending the Chritmas and New Year vacation visiting in Victoria with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perry, formerly of this city.

Miss Marjorie Dimock, Mrs. B. Walker, Miss M. Delaney, Miss Jessie D. Moffatt and J. C. Hutchinson were among members of the local school teaching staff returning to their duties on the steamer Catala last evening after having spent the Christmas and New Year vacation at their homes in Vancouver and elsewhere in he south.

Mrs. Sarah A. Tooley, mother of Mrs. D. C. Schubert of this city, whose death occurred on Saturday morning at Armstrong in the Okanagan district, was born in Buckinghamshire, England, 74 years ago and had been a resident of Canada for twenty-four years. She was widowed soon after arrival in Canada when her husband, Thomas Tooley, was killed in a runaway accident. A son, Cyril Tooley, was employed at the Prince Rupert elevator some four years ago but had since returned to Armstrong. In addition to Mrs. Schubert and this son, surviving children are: a son, William Tooley, in Birmingham, England, a son Alfred, at Armstrong; a daughter Mrs. T. M. Warner at Armstrong and another daughter, Mrs. H. Winter, also at Armstrong.
