Civic Dance For Visiting Sailors

Over Two Hundred Present at Enjoyable Affair Saturday Night In Exhibition Hall

There were fully two hundred persons present at the civic dance tendered Saturday night in the Exhibition Hall by the city with the co-operation of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, to the ship's company of H. M. S. Danae. The affair was most enjoyable to all present. Splendid music was furnished by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra, the members of which wore snappy new outfits. J. A. Teng was master of ceremonies. Buffet refreshments were served by members of the Daughters of the Empire under direction of Mrs. D. C. Stuart, municipal regent.
