PLENTY OF PICNICS

The editor of "Home Gardening," writing to F. J. Fuller The editor of "Home Gardening," writing to r. J. Fuller, burg. New York; Robert C. Gosse, Church vacation school ended yesof this city, says: "We are only just learning the value of W. B. Wetmore, H. Gardiner and terday with an attendance of 101 rain in the Old Country for we have had very little rain for A. Moloney, Vancouver; Mrs. E. children. The school, under the the past year, which is a strange state for England. My Playwright, Victoria: Mrs. James secretary, who has been out in B.C., tells me that when the Brown and Ada, Port Essington: Dafoe, is divided into two departrain ceases to fall in Prince Rupert and there is a really fine day she has heard it on good authority that all the stores close and the school also and everyone goes off for Lobb, L. H. Chapman, D. J. Barta picnic."

Local people will appreciate the humor of the statement. The lady must have been associating with some of Prince Rupert's dear friends in the south.

A LOCAL EFFORT

An effort is being made next week to stage a rose and Viking, Alberta; J. M. Kinsley and flower show that will be a credit to Prince Rupert. Already a number of people have expressed their intention of exhibiting any flowers they may have in bloom at that date. The Canadian National Railways will have a display and everything indicates the probability of there being a law. Miss Iris Watts, sailed last show that will be a credit to the city.

The Horticultural Society makes an appeal to every flower grower in the city to join in this educative move. If kelso, Wash. Mrs. Watts' children this one is a success of how will nearly be a companied her. this one is a success, others will probably follow. Thanks to Mr. Heilbroner it will be possible to hold the show in a very central position and the admission fee is only nominal. The roses are coming on well and it seems probable Anyox and Stewart on the steamer that there will be a splendid showing of flowers. All that is needed is a united effort.

No Tenders For Mattresses From Dealers of City

st night were somewhat mystified at the failure of local furniture dealers to submit bids in response to the advertised invitation for tenders on twelve new air mattresses which it was decided some time ago to order for the hospital. Two local furniture houses had been handed specification, in addition to the advertising, it was reported, but there had been no local

W. M. Brown, chairman of the house committee, and G. V. Wilkinson, chairman of the board, were inclined to feel that the board had discharged its duty as far as the local furniture dealers were conorder the mattresses wherever it saw fit. Mr. Brown moved that the order be given to the Vancouver Card Party and Bedding Co. S. D. Macdonald believed that inquiry should first be made as to why there had been no tenders from local furniture dealers. Frank Dibb said he would also Delightful Affair Held Last Night like to know why. Finally, it was decided to defer the ordering of the mattresses until this information I had been obtained.
