SLAYING OF ALEXANDER AND BARTHOU CAUSE OF WIDESPREAD SENSATION

THE DAILY NEWS

(Continued from Page 1; street by the sabre of a lieutenant but he continued to shoot. He was then fired upon by the police who prevented the crowds, infuriated, from killing him outright on the spot. Kallinin died later in a newsstand to which he had been carried. He was found to be armed with two pistols as well as carrying a powerful bomb. The assassination of Alexander came in spite of elaborate precautions which had been made for his protection. The king had just landed from a Jugo-Slav warship and was on his way to Paris to pay a state visit, at France's invitation, and to discuss political questions which it was believed would lead to a solidification of peace in the long troubled Balkan states. A mighty demonstration of friendship had been arranged by France, Marseilles was en fete and King Alexander was about to receive a formal welcome to France. The bodies of King Alexander and Foreign Minister Barthou lay in state in Marseilles Hospital last night, thousands already gathering to pay their respects to the dead. Queen Marie, consort of Alexander, was on her way here by special train' from Strassbourg where
