FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Victoria Daily Times recently celebrated its fiftieth fellow-citizens than perhaps any Strawberries, B.C., 3 boxes anniversary by publishing a supplement to its regular edi- other man. During his occupancy tion telling of the founding of the paper, its growth and of civic and Dominion offices he winesaps, fancy wrapped, lb. influence and by illustration indicating the growth and proved a faithful servant of the Yellow Newtons, fancy, lb. development of Victoria.

Very soon after the paper was founded it was taken over by the late William Templeman. Among members of his staff was a young man named B. C. Nicholas, who became Mr. Templeman's secretary while he was a member or the East of the federal cabinet at Ottawa. This man is now in control of the editorial department of the paper and is following out the high ideals which have always actuated the editorial staff. He has grown up with the paper and has made it a power in British Columbia.

While the Times has been an exponent of Liberalism, it has not always seen eye to eye with the leaders of the Liberal party. This was recently exemplified when the paper came out strongly in opposition to the special powers granted to the Pattullo government at Victoria. It did not hesitate to oppose the party when it considered the cause of Liberalism was at stake.

The illustrations in the anniversary number show the city of Victoria to be developing as a business centre and also aesthetically. The Times has developed with the city and is today a first class newspaper published at a point where beauty and commercialism go hand in hand and where tourists come from all parts of the world to see how it is done.

Senator Rankin Was Outstanding Citizen-Firm Believer in Liberalism

(CP)-For many years Sen. (Dr. James Palmer Rankin, who died here at the end of the week, was a familiar figure in the life of this community, serving the people both in his professional capacity as a physician and in public life. Dr. Rankin was born in East Zorra township of Oxford County, in 1855, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Rankin. His father was a well known and prosperous farmer of the district, who originally came from Scotland. Dr. Rankin went to the rural school and later to a boys' school in Hamilton, after which he entered Trinity Medical College, Toronto. Dr. Rankin was graduated from Trinity College in 1878 with high honors and the degree of M. B., and went to Edinburgh University from which he was graduated in 1879 with the degree of L. R. C. P. and S.

Returning to Canada he started to practise medicine at Tavistock. going from there to Toronto, and later coming in 1891 to Stratford, 1 where he became a foremost member of the medical profession.

Dr. Rankin had two daughters living, Miss Gertrude and Miss Ethelwyn, both residing at the family residence here. His wife died in 1915. A son, Dr. Ramsay Rankin, died in

During his residence in Stratford, Dr. Rankin was diverse in his activities, not confining himself entirely to his own profession but 10 branching out into the field of politics where he received a generous share of success. He was elected a Liberal member of the Dominion Parliament in 1908, was defeated in 1911 and in 1917, but was elected .25 again in 1921. He remained the re-.92 presentative of North Perth until 1.40 he was appointed a senator in 1925. During his career in Dominion politics Dr. Rankin was a firm upholder of the Liberal standard. In city affairs, he was also prominent, having been a member of the follows: board of education and the city

Dr. Rankin was also a Lieutenant Santa Clara Plums, Cal., 2 lbs. Colonel of the Canadian Army Me- Washington Bing, lb. dical Corps. During his career in Watermelon, cut, lb. Stratford, Dr. Rankin had more of whole the confidence and respect of his Canteloupes, Cal., each 15c to

From the Waterfront

Making her final appearance here of the season, C. P. R. steamer Princess Nerah, Capt. William Palmer, after having been in the Skagway service steadily since last fall, arrived in port at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon from Skagway and other northern points and sailed an hour later for Vancouver. The Princess Norah, which was making the company's first run of the summer tourist season to Skagway will now go off the northern route and will be transferred for the summer to the West Coast of Vancouver Island run. The vessel had 120 passengers aboard on arriving here, three disembarking at this port and seven going aboard for the

The two upper decksboat and promenade-of the vessel have been completely remodelled as far as passenger accommodation is concerned. A large block of staterooms have been enlarged and improved with the providing of many new de luxe quarters, additional baths, etc. The roof of the boat deck has also been widened to provide additional shelter from the weather. The summer service will be carried out by the Princess. Louise and Princess Charlotte, calling here Monday mornings northbound and Saturday afternoons southbound. The Princess Charlotte will be here next week. The Louise today had a large number of passengers on board, the most of whomwere round trip tourists. There were 179 passengers on arrival here. four disembarking at this port
