A copy of the new elevator lease was acknowledged by the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night from Olof Hanson, M.P. at Ottawa.

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night Vice-president C. V. Evitt welcomed representatives of the Junior Chamber and, on their behalf, Reid McLennan said they would soon be ready to lay before the senior organization their proposed program for the coming season.

A letter from Clive Planta, M.L.A. for Peace River, read at the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night acknowledged its congratulations on his railway stand. He disclaimed any credit but was grateful for the sentiment expressed in the letter.

In the absence of President John Dybhavn, who is in the south, Charles V. Evitt, vice-president, was in the chair at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. The meeting was a brief one.

Sergeant C. McKenzie, chief of the Prince George district detachment of the provincial police, left by last evening's train on his return to the interior after a brief visit to divisional headquarters here on official duties. He arrived from Prince George Thursday night.

SHRINE DANCE
HAPPY AFFAIR

Delightful Party Last Night in Masonic Temple With About One Hundred Present

The annual dance of the Prince Rupert Shrine Club was held last night in the Masonic Hall and proved to be a very delightful affair for the one hundred or so persons who were in attendance. Dancing was in progress from 9:30 p.m. until 2 a.m. with music by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra and G. A. Woodland acting as master of ceremonies.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served, G. H. Munro being in charge of this important feature.

The banquet hall of the Masonic Temple, where the affair was held, was specially decorated for the occasion with Shrine emblems and colors.

A recommendation from the finance committee was adopted by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night agreeing with recommendations made in regard to the unfairness of some of the income tax provisions as suggested by the Vancouver Board of Trade but taking no action as it was too late to do so this year.

A meeting is being called to be held in the city hall Tuesday evening at 8 to consider the possibility of forming a horticultural organization with the view, among other things, of importing at least a thousand roses this year for local growing. A price of 18c. each for Vancouver Island grown trees has been secured or slightly less for two thousand, it is announced. All who are interested in gardening, whether rose growers or not, are invited to attend the meeting. 82
