OFFICERS FOR GYRO

Nominations Received — Cost of Gymnasium Estimated $25,000, Committee Reports

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club, at its regular monthly business luncheon yesterday, nominated the following as candidates for office in 1935:

For president, S. J. Jabour and C. E. Starr.
For secretary, H. S. Meadows and T. N. LePage.
For treasurer, C. W. Dawson and Dr. J. H. Carson.

For directors (three to be elected), H. N. Brocklesby, D. G. Borland, T. N. LePage, W. M. Watts, Dr. R. G. Large, Dr. J. H. Carson and C. E. Starr.

The club received a report from the community hall and gymnasium project committee, M. A. Burbank, chairman, estimating that the cost of such a project would be about $25,000 and expressing the opinion that the time was inopportune for any single organization to embark upon such an undertaking. The report was adopted and there will be no further action for this year at least.

There was discussion of changing the present time of meetings on Tuesday noons but no definite decision was arrived at.

MAE WEST FILM HERE

Exotic Blonde Charming Featured in "Belle of the Nineties" At Capitol Theatre

"Belle of the Nineties," mid-week feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here, features Mae West, she of the curves and blonde hair—the Problem Girl of the Movies.

As indicated by the title, the time of the story is the late Nineteenth Century. Miss West plays the part of a New Orleans entertainer in love with a prize-fighter, the Tiger Kid, portrayed by Roger Pryor. The Tiger Kid steals Miss West's diamonds and the latter retorts by putting a sleeping powder in his drinking water in the final round of a prize fight. John Miljan, as the villain, is in love with Miss West and is eventually killed by the Tiger Kid. The whirlwind of action ends with a hotel fire with Miss West landing in the arms of her true love.

The picture is elaborately set with many beautiful costumes and a background of entrancing rhythm. Duke Ellington and his orchestra are featured.

The program includes a single reel entitled "The Magic of Gold" consisting of a tour of British Columbia gold mines in the Cariboo district and a scenic trip over the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.
