Fifteen Police Officers Saw Bandit Enter With Lady Companion and Trapped Him as He Came Out

CHICAGO, July 23:-John Dillinger, arch-criminal, was shot dead last evening by operatives of the Justice Department about 10 o'clock as he was coming out of a movie theatre. The police watched him buy a ticket for himself and lady friend to see the "Manhattan Melodrama," a picture showing the activities of crooks. Fifteen men sur-> although Dillinger whipped a revolver from his pocket, a withering gun fire dropped him, mortally wounded. Two ambulances were at hand, one of which frisked the criminal away and the other took care of the lady friend. A few minutes after the shooting Dillinger

Melvin H. Purvis, leader of the operatives, said: "I had hoped to take Dillinger alive but was afraid he would resist to the last.
