District News

TERRACE

Dr. an Mrs. d R. B. Brummit and their two children of Smithers are pending a holiday at Lakelse Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Mills recently paid a few days' visit in Prince Rupert where they met old friends in the Navy.

Twenty Girl Guides, in charge of Captain Brewerton, have returned to Prince Rupert from Lakelse Lake where they had their annual week's camping. Lieut. Kielback was with the troop as camp nurse and chaperone.

Mrs. C. J. Norrington was the guest recently of Mrs. Will Robinson. Mrs. Norrington accompanied the Girl Guides from Prince Rupert.

Terrace had a visit recently from the deputy minister of public works, Arthur Dixon, together with J. C. Brady, Prince Rupert, district engineer.

Raymond Loen met with an alarming mishap recently when the car he was driving hit a stump, broke the windshield, and he lost three of his front teeth. Fortunately, beyond cuts and a rough shaking up, he escaped serious injury. It happened near Lakelse Lake.

A party of three ladies started for a mountaineering trip to the Kalum Lake country, W. Treston acting as guide to the ascent of Maroon Mountain but cloudy weather prevented the party reaching the summit. They also paid a visit to the fine waterfalls which are found on Glacier Creek. The ladies were all of Terrace—Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Sherwood.

The only resolution Terrace delegates took with them to the Associated Boards of Trade convention in Prince Rupert was one that urged the government to complete the highway from Prince Rupert to Hazelton.

Weather has been warm, dry and clear recently. There are some surprisingly good crops of hay and oats, considering the very dry season, and the potato crop is also promising well.

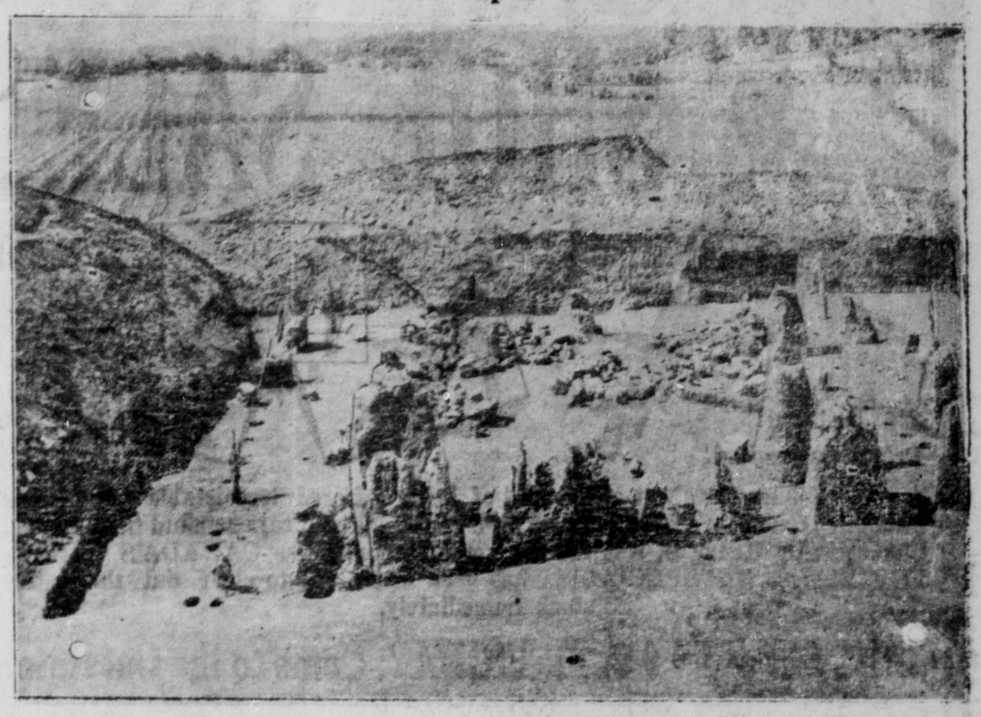
Uuearth Old Temple In Tennessee



An old temple, found on a level below an earlier building in which seventeen well-preserved skeetons were discovered, after an Indian burial mound, dating from long before the arrival of Columbus, had been excavated a few feet from the banks of the Clinch river, site of the Norris dam to be built in Tennesse valley.

Albert E. Berry, who is in the insurance and real estate brokerage business at Vernon and Mrs. Berry and child are visitors in the city. They came north yesterday aboard the steamer Prince Charles from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and boarded the Prince George today to make the trip to Anyox and Stewart and thence south to Vancouver enroute home. Mr. Berry is prominent in fraternal and military circles in Vernon.
