LONG DAY PROTESTED

Provincial Gov't-More Local Labor for Skeena Canneries

The Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council, at its regular waypoints. monthly meeting Thursday night, decided to send a resolution of protest to Premier T. D. Pattullo; Hon. G. S. Pearson, minister of labor, the pontoons at the local dry dock and Robert Connell, Leader of the for the past couple of weeks unduction plant here being permitted to work more than an eight-hour her regular run next week. The day while there are so many unemployed in the city.

fair wage standards existing on the local waterfront and of certain city stores which are said to be violating the requirements of the Minimum Wage Act. The former will be further investigated and the authorities will be requested to make prosecutions in connection with the

The meeting passed a resolution supporting in principle the fight of Rev. A. E. Smth, general secretary of the Canadian Labor Defence League, against conviction at Toronto on a charge of sedition.

Letters passed on by the Junior Chamber of Commerce from Skeena River cannery companies expressing sympathy with the request that more local instead of southern labor be employed in the canneries on the river were read. Thomas Elliott, delegate of the Fish Packers' Union, was appointed to represent the council on the Public Library new book campaign committee.

S. D. Macdonald, president, was in the chair and there was a fair attendance of members.
