THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

SUGGESTION FOR FLOWER-ED MATERIAL

Just from Paris is a blouse made from flowered dimity, in which lace plays an important role. A yoke of allover lace is bordered with a band of insertion, below which are three deep lace points, front and back. The cuff on sleeve is a band of lace insertion topped with two lace points. The newest feature of this blouse, however, is the peplum, which has an inset band of insertion all around. The joining to blouse is made under a girdle of black satin.

DO YOU KNOW THESE?

Before putting your corset cover into the wash, tie a piece of ordinary white tape as long as the ribbon to one end and pull out the ribbon at the other. That leaves the tape in while the cover is laundered. When you are ready to put it on, just tie the ribbon to one end of the tape and pull out the tape. You will find that your ribbon is in smoother and quicker.

Many rust spots on clothes are caused by bits of soap adhering to the latter when they come in contact with the bluing water.

Gone to Hazelton

Mr. A. Gutstein of the Acme Clothing Store left for the branch store in Hazelton today after managing the local store during the past week while Mr. N. S. Schienman, was in Vancouver. Mr. Schienman returned yesterday.

Will Get New Ideas

For the purpose of picking up new ideas of the sartorial world Mr. J. Sweder will leave for the south tomorrow for a few weeks' visit. While away he will purchase his new fall goods.

Victoria won four games out of seven from Seattle in last week's series, making one of the few series the Bees have won this year.

To watch The News want ads is to refuse to be "tied" to an unsatisfactory boarding place.

DAILY COOKING RECIPE

Broiled Tomatoes

Slice, without peeling, large, fair tomatoes, roll in salted and peppered cracker dust and leave upon ice to get firm. Then broil upon a well-greased gridiron, turning with care when one side is done. Transfer to a heated platter when done.

They are a delightful accompaniment to fish.

Many dishes, all palatable and digestible, may be evolved from the prince of vegetables.

If I do not add recipes for canning, it is because careful computation of the cost of putting up the fruit in one's own kitchen, as compared with the price of the vegetables put up by a first class house and warranted good, convinces me that the woman whose time has any value would consult economy, as well as comfort, by buying the tomatoes already prepared for stews, soups and scallops when the season for the ripe tomato has gone by.

WHY DON'T YOU?

Some things there are you cannot do,

For which you weren't intended; But there are paths you might pursue,

Up which you've never wended.

Why try to do what can't be done, While that you can is waiting? The little things, not yet begun, Might prove so compensating.

A smile for some who find it hard To face the world of sorrow. Ah! Say, what is there to retard That smile from you tomorrow?

A helping hand for one whose days Are near the end and dreary, Ah! Why not help him on his way, And make the end more cheery?

If but a smile comes back to you, You'll be the gainer, won't you? So easy 'tis for you to do, And, if you can, why don't you?

A Fashion Note

The great variety that is displayed in the fashions this season is really astonishing. Given precisely the same colors and materials, the dressmakers are constantly evolving new styles that are absolutely unlike anything that has gone before.

According to their present arrangements the Misses Barbeau will leave on the S.S. Princess Royal next Tuesday for a few weeks' holiday in Minneapolis.

OUT OF THE GLOVES

Billy Papke, the leading claimant for the middleweight crown, who recently returned from a long trip through Europe and Australia, will go to New York from his home in Kewanee, Ill., in a few days and start training for the bout with Sailor Burke at the Twentieth Century Athletic Club on August 8. Papke will establish training quarters at one of the nearby beaches and expects to make his trip to New York a protracted one, if matches can be arranged.

The bout with Burke will mark the second appearance of the "Illinois thunderbolt" in New York. Three years ago he boxed Burke and the latter managed to last out six rounds by hugging and running away.

Johnny Conlon, the Chicago boy who holds the bantamweight title by general concession, will take a trip to the other side soon for the purpose of arranging a bout with Digger Stanley, the holder of the English title. There will undoubtedly be a hitch when it comes time to arrange such a match because of the different bantam scales recognized in the United States and Great Britain. Stanley would surely stick out for 118 at 2 o'clock, while Conlon would want 115 ring side.

Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, earned the right to meet Joe Rivers, the sensational California featherweight, by his victory over Patsy Kline of Newark, at Vernon, Cal., in a twenty-round fight. The Cleveland boy won all the way and he looks like a worthy man to swap punches with Rivers when they clash at the same place in a twenty-round contest on Labor Day.

Johnny Daly, who is one of the claimants of the bantamweight title of America, is anxious to become champion of Ireland, and Sam Lewis, his manager, is just as anxious to manage an Irish champion. Mr. Lewis is not Irish, by any means. Far from it, but he comes of a race which knows a good thing when they see it. Lewis has matched Daly with Young Curran of Ireland, the fight to take place in Dublin.

OFF THE WAGON TONGUE

President Hayden of the Burlington Club of the Central Association, has announced that he has sold Pitchers Brown and Hawk to the St. Louis Americans for $5000.

Manager Kelley of the St. Paul Baseball Club says he has sold Catcher Edward Spencer to the Philadelphia Nationals for $2500.

Dick Breen, the former Beaver third sacker, has been turned over to the Milwaukee club of the American Association. Last fall Cincinnati secured Breen from Vancouver and it was thought he had a fair chance of making good until Grant was secured from Philadelphia.

Dell Paddock, who commenced his professional baseball career as a pitcher for the Beavers, has been "sold" by Dugdale to the Chicago White Sox. He is now classed as a third baseman.
