FEATURES ARE NEW

"Stingaree," With Irene Dunne and Richard Dix, at Capitol This Week-End

Many new entertainment features are introduced in "Stingaree," lavish romantic screen melodrama, which is the feature offering at the Capitol Theatre here this week-end. The picture presents Irene Dunne in a prima donna role with a beautiful singing voice with Richard Dix in the dashing leading male role. Against the background of Australia in the nectic seventies, "Stingaree" deals with the spectacular love affair of a lovable bandit and a servant girl in the home of rich relatives. "Stingaree" discovers the girl's vocal genius when he enters the home to rob it. He falls in love with her, kidnaps her and becomes her sponsor for a brilliant operatic career. The story concludes with a dramatic climax. Scenes in various parts of Europe are shown and the production's theme songs are "Stingaree Ballad" and "Tonight You're Mine."

"Three on a Honeymoon," the other end of a week-end double bill, is a comedy romance featuring Sally Eilers, Zasu Pitts and Charles Starrett. The story centres around a reckless, wilful and very pretty girl who takes a solo excursion to Europe in the course of which an interesting love affair with a ship's officer develops.

Mrs. William Rogers leaves on tonight's train for Montreal where she will embark September 14 aboard the liner Laurentic for her home in Dundee, Scotland, having been called there on account of the serious illness of her mother.

YOUR LIVER'S MAKING YOU FEEL OUT OF SORTS

Wake up your Liver Bile —No Calomel needed

When you feel blue, depressed, sour on the world, that's your liver which isn't pouring its daily two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels.

Digestion and elimination are being slowed up, food is accumulating and decaying inside you and making you feel wretched.

Mere bowel-movers like salts, oil, mineral water, laxative candy or chewing gum, or roughage, don't go far enough.

You need a liver stimulant. Carter's Little Liver Pills is the best one. Safe. Purely vegetable. Sure. Ask for them by name. Refuse substitutes. 25c. at all druggists. 53
