THE FEDERAL BY-ELECTIONS

In view of the imminence of the federal general election which the Conservatives, and they should know, say will not be held for a year but which a number of Liberals seem to think may be brought on in a hurry, possibly before the end of this year, special significance will attach to the forthcoming five by-elections in Ontario on September 24.

Of the five seats involved in the by-elections two were held by Liberals and three by Conservatives. Elgin West was vacated by Mitchell Hepburn, now Premier of Ontario, and Kenora-Rainy River by Hon. Peter Heenan or entering the Hepburn cabinet. Toronto East, made vacant by the death of the late Hon. E. B. Ryckman, and Frontenac-Addington, where Dr. W. Spankie M.P. recently died are traditionally Conservative seats. Historic North York which in its day has had both Conservative members and Smith 1b. Liberal, having been made vacant now by the death of the late Col. T. H. Lennox, Conservative, may be considered the best fighting ground of the five contests.

Even if the Conservatives lost in all five contests, their Anyox control of the House would not be affected. If such happened, however, it would be very discouraging as far as the political outlook for them is concerned. The results in the five by-elections will be awaited with much interest by 2; bases on balls off Windle 2; first 0; umpires, Stephens and Wilson. all political observers. CITY COMMISSIONER'S APPEAL

We would suggest to our ratepayer readers that they consider earnestly the appeal being made by City Commissioner W. J. Alder for prompt payment of current taxes and arrears and the special inducement of cancellation of penalties and interest being offered to those paying up in full. Doubtless, those who are in a position to do so and desire to save their property will respond without delay. Possibly, some may consider it advisable to sacrifice meantime in some other direction in order to pay up their taxes. In any case, the proposition looks like a reasonably generous one and should appeal particularly to the owners of improved property.

THE MORRO CASTLE DISASTER

Little did some four hundred holiday makers who left New York a few days ago for a week's vacation cruise to Havana aboard the luxurious liner Morro Castle dream that their journey would end so disastrously and that fully a quarter of them would not return alive to their homes and loved ones. But, as the vacationists neared home in the stormy gray dawn of Saturday morning, their great ship took fire and became a seething inferno of flame from which for many no effectual escape could be made. Fate had struck again to make one of the most terrible peacetime disasters in years.

Truly is it said that one never knows one's "day or hour." Blessed are such people as those who perished in the Morro Castle disaster who may enjoy life happily until it ends. Those who mourn are the real sufferers.
