THINKS HIMSELF INSPIRED

Engelbert Dolfuss, chancellor of Austria, often spoken of as "dictator," believes himself to be divinely inspired to week which brought scheduled play save his country from socialism and also from the excesses up to date. of Hitlerism. He is a devout churchman, beginning every concluded with Elks losing to day with prayer and meditation.

The opposition to Dolfuss comes chiefly from the Marx- Thursday fixture ended with Caian Socialists, the C. C. F. of Austria. Finding that they nadian Legion defeating Empress could make no headway in the policy of confiscation, they took up arms against the administration and, as a result, ferred games were: many have lost their lives.

Dolfuss, although a strict Catholic, is said to be one of the most tolerant men in the country. He has no quarrel 178. with the Jews as long as they do not interfere with his plans. He is strong for the independence of Austria and opposes the Nazis because they are seeking to bring about an alliance with Germany which threatens the loss of 200 Austrian nationality. He sees the weaknesses of democracy and feels that at a crucial time like the present a 200. democratic system lends itself to many abuses which may prove fatal to the independent life of the nation.

WORKING UNDER CODE

So closely allied are the industries of the United States and Canada that it has already been necessary for two Canadian industries to adopt the United States codes. The Former Chief of New York Giants first was the shingle manufacturers and now comes the halibut fishermen. Others may follow such as the paper makers and those doing business in Canada in opposition to American firms.

Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada

HE report of the Company for 1933 is one of consistent and constructive progress. I Its achievements enhance the impressive record of public service it has rendered during the sixty-three years of its existence.

In 1933, as in the preceding three years, people generally experienced exceptional anxiety, the result of incomes being either impaired or entirely cut off. At such a time the unfailing aid and security of life insurance proved of very great value.

In this service the Sun Life Company bore a worthy share. During the year it paid out (exclusive of policy loans) nearly $100,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries. Similarly, during the four years of depression it has paid out over $380,000,000.

Notwithstanding these substantial payments, the Company, during the same four-year period, increased its assets by $55,000,000-its insurances in force by over $307,000,000.
