MOUTH

This week will be a busy one for softball players and fans inasmuch as the playoff series between the Grotto, first half winners, and the | Canadian National Recreation Association, second half winners, wil get under way. The series will be the best three out of five games, the first team to get three wins being the victor. Much interest is being shown and by all accounts there should be some first class ball displayed. The games will be played every night this week until the winner is decided.

A Northern B. C. softball championship series has been arranged between Anyox and Prince Rupert, Anyox to play here on Thursday and Friday, September 6 and 7, while Prince Rupert will play at Anyox on September 8 and 9. The Smelter Town boys are said to be very fast and it is expected that it will be an airtight series all the way through.

What Prince Rupert Needs

Now that conditions are improving is a good time to begin to consider what improvements if any can be made in Prince Rupert. These may be in the form of criticisms or they may be constructive suggestions, preferably the latter. The idea is that suggestions made through these columns may be useful to public bodies in formulating a forward policy.
