THE STORE OF THE BETTER DRESSED FOR LESS

Dr. Hugh H. Young, eminent surgeon of John Hopkins University Hospital at Baltimore, Md., disembarked here from the steamer Prince Rupert Monday after having made the round trip to Skagway and left on that evening's train for an angling trip to Stuart Lake. He plans on returning Saturday afternoon and sailing that evening on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver whence he will proceed east.

Harold Winch, C. C. F. M. L. A. speaks Moose Hall, Friday 8 p.m. sharp. (197)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore left on Monday evening's train for Woodpecker in the Prince George district where they intend to take up future residence.

Corp. J. H. McClinton, divisional clerk of the provincial police, and Mrs. McClinton are spending a two weeks' vacation at Jap Inlet, Porcher Island.

S. E. Robbins, who has been engaged in commercial aviation out of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mrs. Robbins were passengers aboard the Prince Rupert Monday bound for Seattle.

R. W. Hannington of Vancouver, regional counsel for the Canadian National Railways, was here aboard the steamer Prince George yesterday. He is making the round trip to Skagway.

Father J. Byrne Grant O. M. I. sailed at the end of the week on his return to Stewart, where he is stationed as parish priest for the Roman Catholic Church, after having spent a week in the city.

Mrs. Robert Scharffe of Skidegate was here at the week-end on her return to her home on the Queen Charlotte Islands after having spent a month in Vancouver. Mrs. Scharffe had arrived here on the Prince George on Friday from Vancouver.

J. J. McKenna of Burns Lake, who has been on a trip to Vancouver to receive treatment at Shaughnessy Military Hospital, arrived from the south on the Prince George Wednesday and proceeded to the interior on that evening's train.

J. C. Brady, district engineer for the provincial department of public works, returned to the city at the week-end from a trip through the central interior in company with Arthur Dixon, deputy minister of public works, who was making an inspection tour.

Chris Johnson, for drunkenness, was fined $25, with option of ten days' imprisonment, by G. H. Munro J.P. in city police court. Simon Auckland, Indian, was fined $15 and costs, with option of fourteen days' imprisonment, for drunkenness.

Alfred R. Brueger, Wrangell fish dealer, who has been making shipments of Stikine River sockeye salmon to Skeena River canneries this summer, arrived in the city from the north on the Prince Rupert Monday, being here on fishing business.

The regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club was deferred from Tuesday until Wednesday when members of the Home Gas concert party were present and provided entertainment. Capt. C. H. Knox-Little, commanding officer of H. M. S. Danae, and other officers of the visiting British light cruiser were also present as guests. President W. H. Tobey was in the chair and there was a large attendance of members and guests.

Those contributing to the program at the smoker held by the Canadian Legion on Friday in honor of the personnel of H. M. S. Danae were: Master David Houston, Bandmaster McLean of H. M. S. Danae, J. A. Teng and Sergeant Surgeoner R. M. with vocal solos; Able Seaman Ashplant with sketches; Able Seaman Foster and M. J. Dougherty with monologues; Leading Seaman Hughes with comic sketches; Telegraphist Jones with darkie songs; Petty Officer McCluney with magic tricks, and Engine Room Artificer Chown with piano solos. Speakers of the evening were J. H. Preece, president of the Legion; Capt. C. Knox-Little, City Commissioner W. J. Alder, Ex-Mayor C. H. Orme, Lieut. Walter Hume R. C. N. V. R. and Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston.
