EPOCH AT SIMPSON

Was Laying of Corner Stone of the New Grace United Church

PORT SIMPSON. Dec. 19:- The recent laying of the cornerstone of the new Grace United Church here by Rev. Dr. S. S. Osterhout of Vanligious history of Port Simpson.

The first church was built in 1874 by the venerable missionary, Rev. Thomas Crosby. It stood for almost 60 years, a landmark visible at great distance. It is to be replaced by a modern church building with accommodation for religious education activities and it will be a source of pride to the villagers. The building has been made possible with the co-operation of the Home Mission Board which kept up the insurance on the building.

In laying the corner stone Dr. Isterhout placed a box of docueents and other relics of the old hurch in the concrete pier and here sealed it for posterity. He was ssisted at the service by Dr. A. E. erry, medical superintendent of he United Church Hospital, and he minister, Rev. R. J. Love. The choir and concert band were also n attendance. A large congregation ras present.

The building will be completed hin the next year and will be lued at about $10,000, a large art of which will be volunteered in bor as well as much in cash subriptions. The site is the same as at which was occupied by the old church.

Platinum Blonde Heads Cast in "The Girl From Missouri" at Capitol Theatre

screen after an absence of eigh at the Capitol Theatre here. Miss Harlow essays the amusing characterization of a girl who embarks upon a social climbing career because she is determined to get financial security and position along with her marriage ring. The picture flits from swanky New York pent houses to pleasure palaces of Florda and back again.

The veteran Lionel Barrymore chares honors with Miss Harlow in the role of an exceedingly wealthy national political power. Franchot Tone also has a featured part as the on of Barrymore who falls madly in 'ove with Miss Harlow, Additiona humor is supplied by Patsy Kelly, popular short comedy player. Lewis Stone, always liked here, is another prominent member of the cast, it, incidentally, being the third straight picture in which he has been seen here.
