As Quintuplets' Doctor Given Ovation In New York

Dr. Allen Roy Dafoe was noticeably embarrassed as he faced an audience of 3,000 in Carnegie Hall, New York, and told his hearers of the birth of the Dionne quintuplets, and of the subsequent care given to the infants. When he stepped on the platform the audience fairly howled its applause for the homespun doctor from the Canadian north country, and it took him a little while to get his breath and start his talk after the applause had subsided. He is seen here standing on the platform, waiting for the applause to die down.

Food, Not Cash, Is Friday Admission

Anyone May Attend the Food Matinee on Friday

Those in the habit of paying cash to see the good shows at the Capitol Theatre will not need to buy a ticket Friday afternoon. A jar of mother's jam, fruit or any other foodstuff will admit a person to see a good show and will help to cheer a needy family this Christmas. Dave Borland, manager of the Capitol, has arranged to hold the food show on Friday. There is no stipulation regarding age. From six to sixty the admission is any useful article of food.

Will Santa Claus Fail?

To Come To Numbers Of Prince Rupert Children?

So far in the past the people of this city, through the Salvation Army and other organizations, have seen to it that all poor families and especially the children have had the means of enjoying the Christmas season. If this is to be done this year considerable money will be needed and so far not much has been subscribed. How could anyone enjoy Christmas knowing that many children were not enjoying it too?

Money may be sent to the Salvation Army or the Daily News. Goods or clothing should go direct to the Citadel.

Mrs. J. E. Boddie, regent of Queen Mary Chapter, which sponsors the pack, was in the chair and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, president of the Prince Rupert Girl Guides Association, presented to the following first year service stars: Millicent Anderson, Norma Currie, Zilla Sherman, Thelma Edlund, Susanne Ward, Joyce Gawthorne, Ruth Walton, Peggy Barclay, Anne Greggor and Norma Squire.

Mrs. McIntosh, with suitable words in doing so, also presented Mrs. Squire with a handsome cup and saucer as a token of appreciation of the work she is carrying on.

The girls brought gifts for the Christmas hamper, these being received by Mrs. James Simpson, who is in charge of relief for Queen Mary Chapter.
