THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

gown worn at a fashionable seashore hotel by a well-known Quaker City matron. Over the lace skirt was a tunic of black and white striped chiffon voile edged with a band of plain violet silk, which in turn was bordered with a band of jet embroidery. The bodice was attractively put together with same materials in surplice fashion, a rosette of narrow lace hiding the meeting of surplice pieces at waist line. The sleeves were made from one deep flounce of lace.
and a double flounce of embroidery trim skirt as shown.
And a propos of flounce embroidery, the shops are offering wonderful bargains just now. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

ITEMS OF SPORT

According to Alfred Shrubbs, the British long distance runner, who is touring in England this summer, the professional Marathon game is deadlier than the proverbial door-nail in this country.

By defeating the Prince Albert Thistles by a score of four goals to one, Saskatoon made certain of the championship of this division in the Saskatchewan Provincial Football league, the home players have not dropped a point an any of their games and will now have to play off against the winners of the other divisions for the Provincial shield, emblematic of the championship of the province.

Swimming experts expect to see most of Champion Daniels' open water records improved upon before the close of the present season. The retirement of Daniels from competition leaves the field open to a number of speedy fishermen, and Frizell and Reilly are both credited with sufficient speed to lower every standing mark. If favorable conditions prevail during the coming title races, there may be an entire new set of records by October.

According to recent advices Champion Ad Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, will split after the next contest, that Jones will get his commission on the next bout and then be thorough. Wolgast is making his own matches with McFarland and it looks like a Milwaukee club will get the match. The reason for the split between Wolgast and Jones is not known.

The secret Holway learned from runners in both England and Australia is to keep the legs as straight as possible, rest and balance the weight evenly on the two legs and bring both into full play at the very start. Today Holway, who has always been an American professional runner, is getting faster than he ever ran in his life.

George Stovall played baseball at school with Jesse James' sons and the name of the team was the Outlaws. George says it was the best boys' team that ever played. In four years' time they lost but three games.

When Ad Wolgast and Packey McFarland signed articles for a ten round bout at Milwaukee, September 18 it was agreed they should meet in a contest of 20 rounds or more in California some time before the first of the year. The weight in the Pacific coast conflict, while not settled, is expected to be 133 pounds five hours before entering the ring. McFarland is obligated to post $5,000 in support of the second match whenever Wolgast comes to Chicago or Milwaukee to close the affair.
