Labor Day Celebration Here Is Great Success; Superb Weather Favored Good Program of Sport

Unsurpassed weather conditions favored the annual Labor Day celebration of the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council yesterday and there was a great crowd in attendance at the Acropolis Hill Grounds for an excellent sports program. The feature of the day was the Smithers-Prince Rupert baseball game in which Prince Rupert won 7 to 4 after having administered a

2 to 1 defeat upon the Smithereens in the first game on Sunday, an 11-inning affair. Keen interest was also taken in the field sports yesterday. George Brown of Skidegate retained the Hanson Cup for the greatest number of points in the field events. Borden Street School won the junior football game in the morning 4 to nil.

Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill was starter, C. H. Orme and Corp. G. A. Wyman judges, George W. Rudderham, timekeeper and T. B. Black, clerk of the course. E. W. Tucker acted as announcer. The sports committee consisted of Jack Campbell, chairman, James Black, J. J. Gillies, S. A. Bird, Ben Dalgarno, J. S. Wilson, J. Pottinger, Alex Murray and E. F. Saunders. The grounds committee was made up of T. B. Black, chairman, A. A. McEwen, P. J. McCormick, J. Bond, James Foreman and Joseph Davidson. In charge of the day's program were Thomas Elliott, chairman, F. W. Stamp-Vincent, J. S. Black, T. B. Black, S. B. Marshall, Reg. Hobson and F. A. Rogers while the finance committee comprised S. D. Macdonald, chairman, James Black and Frank Derry.

The Boys' Band, under Bandmaster Robert Greenfield, was present throughout the day and entertained the proceedings with excellent music.

ARE DEAD IN NORTH

Two Residents of Peace River Meet Violent Deaths, One by Lightning and One by Drowning

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised of two recent fatalities of accidental nature in the Peace River Block.

One of the victims was Otto Scheurenbrand who lost his life when attempting to ford the White River on his way to Fort St. John with a companion named Southwick. The two men were unable to locate the regular fording place and took to the river with their horses at another point. The horses crowded each other while swimming across the swirling waters and one of them turned over, throwing Scheurenbrand into the river. He was swept away in the current and his body later found in a log jam. Deceased was born at Fort St. John of German parentage.

In the other fatality John W. McDonald, Dawson Creek rancher, lost his life when struck by a bolt of lightning. He and his two sons were riding in from haying on a stoneboat when the lightning struck deceased in front of and 25 feet from his house. The team bolted and one of the sons was injured when he struck his side against a plow. McDonald was 48 years of age, was a Canadian and had resided in the Peace River district fourteen years. He is survived by a widow and two sons and two daughters.
