Why is St. Charles Evaporated Milk different . . . better? The reason begins way back on the farm where it comes from! Cows, barns, milkers, equipment are carefully inspected. And when the milk arrives at the spotless Borden plants, tests are made for flavor, purity, richness and body—the most rigid tests ever evolved in the industry.

That's why-for your coffee, or your cooking, it pays to insist on St. Charles.

It's Better—And you can prove it.

Addressed Club On Subject of Lies

Rev. C. D. Clarke Classifies People Who Make False Statements in Entertaining Fashion

Quoting from a book recently published on the subject, Rev. C. D. Clarke, pastor of First United Church, told the Rotary Club yesterday that there are three kinds of liars in this world. There are the plain, ordinary garden liars, there are "damned" liars and statisti-

The more or less innocent liars are those who make such statements as that man is descended from the ape whereas it should be ascended. Mr. Clarke said his grandparents were descended from the Irish but that seemed impossible. He said some people paid five cents for a newspaper but they found only about two-thirds of it was news, the remainder being advertising.

Coming to the second in the classification, these were intended to deceive and defraud and often did untold harm to body and soul. He included in this considerable of the modern advertising. He quoted a number of specific instances and enlarged on them considerably.

Speaking of statisticians as liars, Mr. Clarke mentioned the case of religious denominations. Statisticians said that there were 1200 Presbyterians in Prince Rupert and 1650 Anglicans. Figures did not lie but they could be made to tell different stories. They were like the Bible. You could prove almost anything by quotations from them.

Among the lies intended to deceive people Mr. Clarke instanced the statement attributed to Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King that he would not give a five-cent piece to any Tory government, to Premier R. B. Bennett that he was seeking a title and to the C. C. F. that they were anti-Christian.

The address was replete with bright witticisms and was much appreciated.

Shirley Temple Captivating in "Little Miss Marker" at Capitol Theatre

Featuring that delightful little star, Shirley Temple, a highly entertaining picture "Little Miss Marker" comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here tonight and Saturday. The story is one with laughs and tears concerning the touts and bookmakers and all the innumerable small fry who hang around Broadway. It is a tale of the charity and kindliness that lie concealed beneath even the stiffest shirt bosoms in the hardest of all traffic arteries. Little Shirley Temple first enters the plot of the story when she is deposited with Adolphe Menjou as collateral for a bet by her father who subsequently disappears. Before long half of Broadway is in on a co-operative venture-helping to raise the little girl. It is in the final episodes, when a tragic climax is narrowly averted, that the nobility of these strange people really asserts itself.

Other notable members of the cast include Dorothy Dell, Charles Bickford, Lynne Overman, Sam Hardy, Frank McGlynn sr. and Crauford Kent.
