SIMPSON MAN DIES

Louis Gray, Well Known Villager And Church Worker, Passes Away

PORT SIMPSON, Jan. 30:—The death of Louis Gray, one of the leading men of Port Simpson, was mourned by the entire community. The late Mr. Gray was for many years a lay worker for the Methodist Mission and, as such, had been stationed at Skeena Crossing, Rivers Inlet and other points. He was an honorary member of the Y.P.E.A. here and was also a strong worker for the Epworth League of the United Church, being one of the men responsible for the building of the new hall for that organization. He was very widely known and was also a member of the Temperance Society.

Deceased leaves to mourn his loss, besides the widow, one son, Henry, and a daughter, Mrs. George Ryan. Other relatives reside at Metlakatla, Alaska.

The body lay in state in the Epworth League Hall before the funeral which was conducted by Rev. P. Love, assisted by the chaplain of the local Temperance Society, E. F. Dudoward, both at the church and at the graveside. The honorary pallbearers were the elders of the United Church and the active pallbearers were from the Y.P.E.A. and the P.S.A.C. Interment was made in the Finlayson Island Cemetery.

TUNNEL IN GOOD ORE

Satisfactory Results Continue to be Recorded at Prince Rupert Group of Q. C. Islands

SKIDEGATE, Jan. 30:—Hydah Gold Mines Ltd., which is developing the Prince Rupert group of claims at Kootenay Harbor and which last November started to drive a long tunnel at the foot of the mountain to cross five principal veins on the claims, has now gone through a very rich vein known as the AA vein. Gold can be seen all through the quartz in this vein which is believed to have good depth.

A. J. Ingraham, manager of the mine, is very pleased with the results and progress made in this tunnel.
