GROTTO UP IN FINALS

Defeated C. N. R. A. in Softball Play-Off Series Last Night

The hard-hitting Grotto aggregation lambasted the Canadian National Recreation Association team by a score of 12 to 3 last night to go one up in the City Softball League championship play-offs. They gathered nine runs in the first three innings, getting during this period eight hits, three bases on balls while the C. N. R. A. was making four errors. After the third inning the game was interesting. Both teams played ragged ball at times but the C. N. R. A. could not connect with hits when needed. Poor judgment in running bases also was a factor in their defeat. The Grotto outfield was good, with Hill getting four put-outs and one assist. The Grotto infield was good with the exception of Nelson who had an off day. Fong was the best Unger was the best man on the field for the C. N. R. A., and Cameron got a triple in the ninth inning scoring two runs for the railroaders. Stiles pitched the last three innings for C. N. R. A.

C. N. R. A.—Geddes c., Pitcher p., rf., Stiles 1b., p., Astoria 2b., Hibbard 3b., Unger ss., McIntosh lf., Horton cf., Cameron rf., 1b.
