COLORFUL SPECTACLE

Another historical drama such as have proven very popular during the past year on the talking picture screen, "The Scarlet Empress," featuring Marlene Dietrich, is the feature offering for the first of this week on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The story is made up from scattered pages from the diary of a Russian princess, Sophia Frederica, who became Catherine II, a great empress. The picture visualizes the semi-barbaric Oriental exoticism of the ealy Eighteenth Century Muscovite court. The drama is spiced with a comedy twist.

The production is a masterpiece of detailed pictorial splendor while an unprecedented use of sound also is predominating. The musical score, a triumph of instrumental and choral melody, is a treat for music lovers. All in all, the picture is a dashing spectacle.

In addition to Miss Dietrich, other outstanding members of the cast include John Lodge, Louise Dresser, Maria Sieber and C. Aubrey Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McCormick, 944 Ninth Avenue East, celebrated their silver wedding aninversary last Thursday night with a delightful card and dancing party, about twenty-six friends being present.

After cards, dainty refreshments were served, the table being beautifully decorated with flowers and centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by Mrs. Bruce Love, an old friend of the bride and groom of a quarter of a century ago.

Following the supper, Fred Grimble, on behalf of the company assembled, presented Mr. and Mrs. McCormick with a beautiful silver tea service. George Rodger also voiced a few words of congratulations and best wishes for the future
