Bones of One of Three Storm Victims Wash Up On Vancouver Id. Coast

Clothing Also Found Near Clo-oose—Believed to Have Belonged Either to Helge Jacobsen, Soren Knutson or Einar Okivik

VICTORIA, Jan. 9: (CP)—A leather coat, several shirts and a vest have been washed up on the West Coast of Vancouver Island near Clo-oose. Nearby were found the pelvis and thigh bones of a medium-sized man. It is believed they are the remains of one of three fishermen who were missing since their trolling boats were wrecked early in December. These three men were Helge Jacobsen, Soren Knutson and Einar Okivik, all of whom were well known along the coast.

Sum of $2,100,000 For Project Requested—Would Connect Northwestern States With B.C., Yukon and Alaska

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 9: (CP)—Delegate Diamond of Alaska introduced a bill in Congress on Monday to authorize survey and construction of a highway to connect northwestern United States with British Columbia, Yukon and Alaska in co-operation with Canada. The bill would authorize a sum of $100,000 for a survey and $2,000,000 for roads in Alaska to connect the territory's road system with Dawson.

NO CHANGE IN GRANTS

Municipalities to be Paid for Teachers' Salaries on Present Scale Until March 31

VICTORIA, Jan. 9:—Hon. Dr. George M. Weir, minister of education, announced yesterday that there would be no change in government grants in respect to teachers' salaries during the first three months of this year. Funds are being provided to pay grants on the present basis up to March 31, the minister stated. A contemplated cut of $25 per month in teachers' salaries will thus be avoided.

SOVIET TIMBER FOR U. K. CUT?

LONDON, Jan. 9:—The Morning Post (Conservative) stated this morning that the British government intended to overrule an agreement made between Soviet Russia and the British Timber Exporters Limited in regard to the importation of timber from Russia into the United Kingdom. The effect of the government action will be, the paper states, to reduce orders from the Soviet by one third in favor of Empire products.

WORK WELL UNDER WAY

Removal of Old Material From Prince George Almost Completed

Removal of old plates and other damaged material from the bottom of the steamer Prince George, which is undergoing repairs at the local dry dock following her recent stranding near Anyox, is pretty well completed and the actual replacement and repair job will shortly be fully under way. Almost half the length of the bottom of the ship is involved. The job, it is expected, will take six weeks' or two months' time and the work means the employment of well onto one hundred men at the dry dock.

At the same time as the repair job, the Prince George will be given her annual overhaul.

After the Prince George is finished, the Prince Rupert will be taken into the yard for annual overhaul.

DELEGATION WAS HEARD

Premier Pattullo Hears Junior Chamber Representatives—Gives Favorable Reply

President S. J. Jabour and R. L. McLennan, as a delegation from the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, waited upon Premier T. D. Pattullo at the end of the week, presenting a memorandum from that body.

In regard to the resumption of construction of the Skeena River Highway, the Premier informed the delegation that this was a foregone conclusion, providing the necessary finances could be arranged for a "work and wages" program in which the local project was included.

Premier Pattullo expressed himself as being in sympathy with the idea of a radio broadcasting station being established here and promised to take up the matter in the proper quarters while in Ottawa.

The Premier did not commit himself as to the use of unemployment relief labor in the establishment of a public playground in Prince Rupert.

PROTECTION FOR CHAMBER

Reports Disturb Paris That Swindler Had Been Killed by Police To Prevent Scandal

PARIS, Jan. 9.—Huge forces of mounted and foot police surround the Chamber of Deputies today to guard against a demonstration resulting from reports that police had killed Serge Stavisky, alleged swindler of $40,000,000 in the Bayonne Pawnshop scandal.

Stavisky died early this morning at Chamonix and it was reported he "knew too much" about higher ups.

SWINDLER SHOT SELF

Self-Inflicted Wound of Serge ("Handsome Alex") Stavisky Proves Fatal

CAMONIX, France, Jan. 9: (CP)—Serge ("Handsome Alex") Stavisky, alleged to have swindled the French investing public out of $40,000,000 through the now defunct Bayonne Pawn Shop, shot himself yesterday after being discovered by the police living in a hut at the foothills of the French Alps. The wound proved fatal, Stavisky dying early this morning.

A cabinet scandal may develop out of the activities of Stavisky.

TO LEAVE TOMORROW

Condition of Premier Greatly Improved and He Will Not Need Doctor on Trip

The condition of Premier T. D. Pattullo, who has been a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital for the past ten days suffering from a nasal infection, has improved to such an extent that he will be able to leave here for the east by Wednesday afternoon's train with a medical attendant, it was announced this morning.

Accompanied by Major S. F. Moore, assistant to the Premier, Mr. Pattullo will proceed from Prince Rupert direct to Ottawa where the Dominion-provincial conference is to open on Wednesday of next week.

DEATH OF MINISTER

Second Member of Ontario Government to Die in Eight Days Expires in Person of Dr. Monteith

STRATFORD, Ont., Jan. 9: (CP)—Hon. Dr. Joseph D. Monteith, minister of public works and labor for Ontario, passed away here last night at the age of 69 following a stroke which he suffered two weeks ago. He was the second Ontario cabinet minister to die within eight days, Hon. Edward A. Dunlop, provincial treasurer, having died last week. Dr. Monteith had been a member of the cabinet since 1926 when he became provincial treasurer, later being advanced to the more important portfolios.

Born June 2, 1865, near Stratford, the late Dr. Monteith was the son of the late Andrew Monteith who sat in the first Legislature after Confederation under Sir John Sandfield Macdonald and also for many years in the House of Commons under Sir John A. Macdonald. He was educated at the Perth rural schools, Stratford Collegiate Institute, Trinity Medical College, Toronto, and McGill University, graduating as a physician and surgeon in 1895, since which time he had practised the medical profession. He was born, raised on and operated a farm in early life, taught school for four years and financed himself through college.

After serving for several years as member and chairman of the board of education and alderman, he became mayor of Stratford for two years. He was first elected to Parliament in the general election of 1923. He was a Conservative and represented North Perth in Parliament.

In 1895, Dr. Monteith was married to Alice Mary Chown of Perth County. They had a daughter and a son. He was a member of the Forester and Oddfellows' Lodges. In 1906 and 1907, Dr. Monteith made an eleven months' world tour, visiting every country of the globe. He was an Anglican.
